The 2019 Season Outlook

The Road to Redemption

By Mick McGrane

All's well that ends well.

For the better part of a decade, it had served as San Diego State's mantra, one fueled by muscle, moxie and more than a little bit of good fortune.

But in 2018, Lady Luck, so long a loyal companion, turned her back on the Aztecs as though they'd offended her good name, hurling insult upon injury and leaving them to hobble home in a heap.

Having posted three straight seasons of 10 or more wins, while adroitly skirting the calamity triggered by injury, SDSU last season was forced to play up to 18 redshirt or true freshmen due to an injured list that seemingly multiplied by the week. It was a rude dose of reality, a struggle for survival, one that culminated in the team winning just one of its final six games.

There was the knee injury that claimed their starting quarterback, and the chest injury that took away their starting tailback. There were injuries that sidelined three starting offensive linemen. Only four seniors started every game. By the time SDSU squared off against Hawai'i in its regular-season finale, 34 entire games had been missed by would-be starters due to injury or personal reasons, a number that swelled to 43 when including parts of games. Of those 43, 38 came on the offensive side of the ball, where the injured included the program's all-time winningest quarterback Christian Chapman, and tailback Juwan Washington, who had been named to the preseason Maxwell Award Watch List.

As one of the youngest teams in the nation at the outset of the 2018 season (the Aztecs played 16 freshmen and only 12 seniors in Week 11 at Fresno State), the climb proved too steep as SDSU finished with a losing record (2-4) in the second half of the regular season for the first time in head coach Rocky Long's eight-year tenure.

The Aztecs garnered a bowl bid for the ninth consecutive season, but were blanked 27-0 by Ohio in the Frisco Bowl, the first time SDSU had been shut out in 155 games. It also marked SDSU's fourth straight loss, something that had never occurred since Long took over as head coach in 2011.

"I think it was probably a fitting cap to the way the end of the season went," Long said of the Aztecs' postseason performance. "Nobody around here is satisfied, even if we've gone to nine straight bowl games and had a winning record for nine straight years. Now, there might be some people who would be happy with that, but we're not happy with that.

"We've changed some things in our offseason program and we did some different things during spring ball. We've changed some of the things we're doing with summer workouts. It's more like things were maybe five or six years ago. I think we'd progressed over time to the point where maybe we didn't consider that those things were necessary. And maybe that had something to do with why we didn't play as well."

It also goes a long way in explaining why there's no substitute for experience.

In fashioning an overall mark of 32-9 from 2015-17, SDSU averaged 32.7 points per game, including a school record 35.2 in 2016.

Forced to rely last season on a quarterback (Ryan Agnew) who had never started a collegiate game, and a backup tailback (Chase Jasmin), the Aztecs averaged 20.6 points, their lowest total in a decade.

"If we'd had the same production from our offense that we'd had in the past, we probably win four or five more games," Long said. "But we've made more adjustments this offseason than we probably have in the last five or six years, and a lot of that is a reaction to winning seven games, when you're used to winning more. And a lot of it depends on the program.

"When I first got here, and Brady was the head coach (former SDSU head coach Brady Hoke was hired as the team's defensive line coach in February), a lot of people would have thought we were the best coaches in the world if we'd won seven games. But after you win 11 (in 2015), 11 (in 2016) and 10 (in 2015), and suddenly you win seven, everybody wants to know what's wrong with the coaching staff. And maybe that's the way it should be. But when we first got here and they hadn't had a winning season in (11) years, if you win seven games you're looked it as doing a heck of a job. Now seven games isn't good enough. But that's the way it is everywhere and that's probably the way it should be. But it's a lot easier trying to explain why you won only seven than it is winning three."

That they won seven was no small feat. Indeed, with the exception of a 21-point loss to Stanford in the season opener, the Aztecs' average losing margin in three Mountain West games was 5.0 points. The Aztecs led at the half in two of the three losses and dropped a one-point decision to Hawai'i in overtime.

"We had been really lucky for three or four years where we never lost our top players," Long said. "Last year, we lost a whole bunch of our top guys. But we've also got to do a better job of overcoming that.

"I thought we started the season pretty well, but when Juwan Washington got hurt, it was almost the same time that our quarterback got hurt. It was also pretty much the same time that we lost two starting offensive lineman and our fullback (Isaac Lessard). At the time, Juwan was one of the leading rushers in the country. You take all of those things into account, and suddenly a whole lot of your firepower is gone. Not only have you lost a lot of your best players, but now you have a lot of guys in there who have never played before. You go from being a fairly mature team to being an almost inexperienced team.

"When you combine all of that with some things we didn't do real well on defense, all of the sudden it snowballs. If your offense is struggling, the defense has to cause turnovers so that you give your offense some momentum and maybe a shorter field. Statistically, we were bad on third down on both offense and defense (SDSU ranked ninth in the 12-team Mountain West in both categories). We were bad in the red zone on both offense and defense (the Aztecs finished 11th in the league in the former and tied for 11th in the latter). So, you can point to some glaring things, but it comes down to players playing. And if you have a guy out there who's hardly played before, seldom is he going to be better than the guy who has played a lot."

In 2019, however, many of those same guys who had hardly played now have a season's worth of experience under their belts, including senior quarterback Ryan Agnew.

Agnew, who had attempted only nine career passes while spending two seasons as the backup to Chapman, started seven of the final 11 games of the 2018 season, completing 115-of-223 passes for 1,651 yards and 10 touchdowns. A versatile player who also can utilize his feet, Agnew added 141 yards rushing.

Yet in a move to simplify matters for quarterbacks and offensive linemen alike, the Aztecs this season will, at times, look nothing like the Aztecs of old. Rather than routinely utilize the run-heavy approach that paid myriad dividends for a number of talented backs in recent seasons, SDSU will employ new formations, spreading the field to prevent opposing defenses from stacking the line of scrimmage to stop the run.

And while the Aztecs have no intention of discarding their former approach of playing maul-ball, the new formations also will allow the team's quarterbacks to operate out of the shotgun, a position most of them grew accustomed to as youngsters.

"It went OK during spring practice, but we've got to make some big improvements during fall camp and before we start playing somebody else," Long said. "I think with Ryan, it fits him really well, because this is what he did for three years during high school. Every one of the quarterbacks we have ran (the spread formation) in high school, so it hasn't been hard for them to change back."

AZTECS
SAN DIEGO STATE
29

THE OFFENSE

In winning 32 of 41 games from 2015-17, the Aztecs were nothing if not electric, scoring 30 or more points 25 times. They scored 40 or more 13 times.

But in 2018, faced with the mammoth task of overcoming a flood of injuries and the subsequent inexperience at key positions, SDSU scrambled to find answers.

Where only a season before Rashaad Penny had rushed for a school-record and FBS-best 2,248 yards, the Aztecs last year rushed for 2,102 as a team. When Juwan Washington went down with a chest injury in Week 4, SDSU was forced to turn to a quartet of running backs — Chase Jasmin, Chance Bell, Kaegun Williams and Zidane Thomas. The latter three had never carried the ball in a collegiate game.

Predictably, given injuries to the offensive line, SDSU's running game, perennially among the best in the league, slipped to No. 6 in the Mountain West. Washington still finished as the team's leading rusher with 999 yards on 199 carries despite missing over four games with the chest injury. Jasmin added 592 yards on 138 carries, but was sidelined with a concussion in mid-October. Bell, Williams and Thomas combined for 233 yards.

No less damaging was the injury to Chapman, who before being sidelined with a knee injury against Sacramento State in Week 2, had become the winningest quarterback in SDSU history.

Enter Agnew, a junior who had appeared in 15 games with zero starts. Agnew didn't blink, rallying the Aztecs to a win over Sacramento State before going 6-1 as the starter. In Week 3, in his first career start, he led the Aztecs to a 28-21 win over No. 23 Arizona State, becoming the first quarterback from a non-Power 5 school to beat a nationally ranked team from a Power 5 school in his starting debut since the 2019 season. His average of 14.36 yards per completion led the Mountain West and ranked No. 10 in the nation.

Agnew heads into fall camp not only as the undisputed starter, but as the quarterback who will get the first opportunity to benefit from the team's new spread formations.

"I think we were trending in that direction, anyway," Long said of utilizing spread formations. "I think teams were getting better at confusing us. The more players we had in the box, the more players (opponents) put in the box. We weren't blocking as well because I think teams were beginning to use stunts and different things that made it harder for us to block. If you spread teams out, you have them blocked. If you send a receiver in motion and the defensive player goes with him, he's blocked. He's not in the box, so it makes it easier in blocking schemes to pick guys out.

"We had to play a lot of freshmen last year out of necessity, and we think we need to make our offensive players more comfortable. If we're going to have to play young guys, we want them doing things they've done their whole lives, like putting the quarterback in the shotgun. We're going to use some spread formations where it's easier for the offensive linemen to know who they're blocking and it's easier for the quarterback to read coverages. These days, guys have been playing in those (spread) formations since they were playing Pop Warner football.

"It's not like we're completely giving up on (utilizing a pro set), but I think it's time we start using formations where guys are comfortable, especially if you're forced to play young guys. In the past, we've had to teach quarterbacks how to take a snap (under center) because most of them have always been in the shotgun."

QB

POSITION BREAKDOWN

The passing numbers (11-of-17, 159 yards) weren't necessarily earth-shaking, but Ryan Agnew's debut in 2018 was less about stats than stating his case for the future.

Agnew, who had thrown for nearly 7,000 yards and 60 touchdowns as a prep standout at Carroll High in Southlake, Texas, was beginning his third year as SDSU's backup last season when starter Christian Chapman was felled by a knee injury in Week 2 against Sacramento State.

When Chapman went down with just under five minutes to play in the second quarter, Agnew had appeared in a total of 15 games and attempted exactly 560 fewer passes than the Aztecs' starter, the pitfalls of playing behind the winningest quarterback in SDSU history.

But Agnew's refusal to consider himself second-best in what had annually become a one-man competition in fall camp was telling. After rallying the Aztecs to a 28-14 win over Sacramento State, Agnew the following week took down No. 23 Arizona State. It was the first time since 2009 that any quarterback from a Group of 5 school had beaten a ranked Power 5 school in his starting debut. The guy who had never started a game was en route to winning six of his first seven as a starter, and putting his stamp on taking the reins in 2019.

As for the new backup to the former backup? The jury's out.

"I think there's some really good competition there, but if you look at spring practice, it was sort of hot and cold," Long said. "We'd have one scrimmage where one of the quarterbacks would be good and another scrimmage where a different guy would be good. We didn't let Ryan do any of the live stuff, so the other three quarterbacks got a lot of reps with live action where they were actually getting hit.

"But we had four scrimmages, and in each one of the four a different guy played better. Now, that's good and bad, because we don't have a legitimate backup yet."

The challengers include Jordon Brookshire, a junior transfer from Laney Community College in Oakland; sophomore Mark Salazar; and redshirt freshman Carson Baker.

Brookshire led Laney to the California Community College Athletic Association championship in 2018. Salazar and Baker, both of whom hail from San Diego-area schools Rancho Bernardo HS and Helix HS, respectively, have yet to play.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

San Diego State went 40 consecutive games without throwing more than one interception from Sept. 12, 2015 to Aug. 31, 2018 before throwing two against Sacramento State on Sept. 8, 2018. That is the second-longest streak in FBS play since at least 1996.

RB

POSITION BREAKDOWN

SDSU's intent to spread the field could give one the impression that its long-heralded running game may no longer be its strong suit.

Don't believe it.

"I think some of our running backs are disappointed that we're (implementing spread formations), because one of the reasons they came here is so they could be a tailback in the I-formation, but every one of them was in the spread in high school," Long said. "So, they have a lot more experience running the ball from the spread formation, in the pistol formation or the offset-back formation.

"The running plays that we're going to put in are exactly the same running plays, the blocking schemes are exactly the same blocking schemes. But when you put one more wide receiver out there, one of the defenders usually goes out there to cover him, so that makes the numbers at the line of scrimmage a little different."

Before his injury last season, Juwan Washington was on a tear, opening the season with a 158-yard performance against Stanford, and following it with games of 156 yards and three touchdowns against Sacramento State and 138 yards against No. 23 Arizona State. With that, he became just the third Aztec in program history to open a season with three straight 150-yard games, joining Marshall Faulk (1992) and Rashaad Penny (2017).

Bell, a former standout at nearby Bonita Vista High who led the Barons to a CIF-San Diego Section title in 2015 by rushing for 2,632 yards and 34 touchdowns, was recruited by SDSU out of high school and junior college. Because the Aztecs have no available scholarships, Bell will join the team as a walk-on. He played two seasons at Arizona Western before choosing Nebraska over Tennessee.

"We recruited him out of high school, and he did some pretty good things at Nebraska," Long said. "Right now, I think Chase Jasmin is the backup to Juwan, but that's another spot where I think there's going to be a lot of competition in fall camp. Some of them, even though they're looked at as running backs, can also be used in the slot (in the spread formation) or even out wide."

Junior fullback Isaac Lessard is expected to miss the season after suffering a severe knee injury in the first scrimmage of spring practice. Junior Grady Vazquez enters fall camp at the No. 1 spot on the depth chart, with redshirt sophomore Connor McBride at No. 2.

POSITION BREAKDOWN

In recent seasons, consistency and wide receiver have not exactly gone hand-in-hand at SDSU. Moreover, the team's top two receivers in 2018 — tight end Kahale Warring and wide receiver Fred Trevillion — are now in the NFL after accounting for nearly 1,000 of the Aztecs' 2,433 receiving yards last season.

"I think that's probably the most competitive spot we'll have going into fall camp," Long said. "We don't have anybody coming back at receiver who proved they were really good players last year, though I thought Kobe Smith looked pretty good during spring ball. We need somebody to step up and be a big-time receiver."

The 6-foot-2 Smith, a sophomore from Compton, played in 12 games last season, catching nine passes for 113 yards. He is currently No. 1 on the depth chart at the "X" receiver spot, followed by sophomore Elijah Kothe, who made two starts last season as a true freshman.

Sophomore Ethan Dedeaux, whose 90 receiving yards against Sacramento State last season were the most by an Aztec freshman since 1996, is currently No. 1 on the depth chart at the "Z" receiver position. Dedeaux started eight games last year and was the team's third-leading receiver with 22 receptions for 262 yards (11.9 yards per catch). Junior Isiah Macklin, SDSU's tallest receiver at 6-5, heads into fall camp No. 2 on the depth chart at the "Z" spot.

Another player who could figure into the mix is incoming junior Dominic Benson, a 6-2 transfer from Ventura College. A native of Woodbridge, Va., Benson helped Ventura finished 11-2, falling to Laney (formerly the home of Aztecs' new quarterback Jordon Brookshire) in the California Community College Athletic Association title game.

TE

POSITION BREAKDOWN

If the Aztecs' defensive line ranks as Rocky Long's chief concern heading into the 2019 season, the tight end spot is no less unsettling.

With junior Kahale Warring leaving school early to enter the NFL draft, signing with the Houston Texans as a third-round pick, SDSU has one player — senior Parker Houston — with extended experience at tight end.

Fortunately, the introduction of spread formations in the Aztecs' offense won't necessarily demand that tight ends routinely serve as extra offensive linemen.

"We have one really good one (Houston) who is a proven commodity," Long said. "And then we have several with really good potential in terms of size, speed, strength, athletic ability. And it's good that they're not only going to be tight ends now. The change (in formations) fits them well.

"Another reason that it's probably good we're changing our formations a little bit is because we don't have a veteran fullback coming back (due to the injury to Isaac Lessard). It gives you the ability to use tight ends as H-backs or use them on the wing, on the line or in the slot."

Houston, who started every game last season, finished with 16 catches for 178 yards and two touchdowns.

Other candidates at the position include sophomore Daniel Bellinger, sophomore Alex Wilson and sophomore Shane Coleman, all of whom played in nine games last season; redshirt freshman Nic McTear, who, per Rivals, chose SDSU over Auburn, Miami, LSU, Oklahoma State, Mississippi State, Colorado and Iowa State; and sophomore Brennan Hawkins.

OL

POSITION BREAKDOWN

When Rashaad Penny rushed for a school-record and FBS-best 2,248 yards in 2017, the general consensus was that SDSU was on the verge of boasting one of the top offensive lines in college football.

Ultimately, however, injury and non-football issues clouded that potential in 2018, with starters Keith Ismael, Dominic Gudino and Zachary Thomas all missing games with injuries. With the season winding down, sophomore tackle Tyler Roemer was suspended for violation of team rules and then announced he was leaving school early to enter the NFL draft.

A group that had displayed seemingly unlimited potential, particularly given its youth, suddenly found itself juggling its fair share of trials and tribulations.

"I was disappointed with the way they performed," Long said. "Hopefully, we'll have a seven-man rotation this year where, depending on who we play and what kind of (defensive) scheme they run, we'll have the ability to adjust. If you have a team that plays a nose guard, you want your bigger guy (Ismael or Gudino) at center. If you have a team that plays an even front, you want your bigger guy at guard."

The Aztecs have handed their left tackle spot to junior Kyle Spalding, whose wandering appears to have come to an end. A high school quarterback who was recruited to SDSU as a tight end, the 6-6, 300-pound Spalding moved to the offensive line last season, playing in all 13 games and starting the final three at right tackle.

Thomas, who suffered a knee injury in Week 3 last season and was held out of spring drills, enters fall camp as the backup to Spalding at left tackle.

At left guard, starting senior Daishawn Dixon has played in more games (39) than any active Aztec player and is tied with Ismael (25) for most starts.

Although Ismael, a first-team all-MW pick, and Gudino are currently listed as Nos. 1 and 2, respectively, at center entering fall camp, both also have experience at guard. As such, one or the other could battle 6-5, 350-pound redshirt freshman William Dunkle for the starting spot at right guard.

Jacob Capra, a 6-5, 315-pound junior transfer from Oregon, is No. 1 on the depth chart at right tackle. His brother, Joey Capra, is currently No. 3 at left tackle behind Spalding and Thomas.

In addition, Jacob Jimenez, a graduate transfer from BYU who was part of the 2019 recruiting class, also is expected to compete for a starting job.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

Battling injuries throughout the 2018 season, San Diego State used eight different lineups on the offensive line in 13 games. Ryan Pope was the only Aztec to start all 13 games (eight at right tackle, three at left tackle). Keith Ismael started at all three interior spots (LG, C, RG).

THE DEFENSE

Rocky Long has never been overly technical when addressing football fundamentals.

Exhibit A: Win the turnover battle, win the game.

In 2018, the Aztecs found themselves in unfamiliar territory, losing the turnover battle and finishing eighth in turnover margin in the 12-team Mountain West (-0.23 per game).

More glaring, perhaps, was SDSU's performance in the red zone, where after finishing first in the league in 2017, it finished tied for last with New Mexico in 2018, allowing opponents to score nearly 90 percent (89.5) of the time.

"Other than those two areas, the statistics say it was pretty similar to the five years before that," Long said. "But not causing enough turnovers hurts your offense, too. If your defense gives you a short field, chances are you're going to score more points. So, the lack of turnovers was really disappointing to me.

"Now, my belief and my experience tell me that a lot of it was a (lack of) effort. We do turnover drills and practice them all the time, and that's something we do every year. Some years you end up with more turnovers than other years, but last year was such a dramatic change that I'm thinking it was more about effort and intent. We're going over there just to make a tackle, not make the tackle and cause a fumble. That's a coaching deal, and we've got to get that across to them. We need to make them understand that they're not just going over to make a play, they're going over there to make something else happen, too. I think we must have dropped about 20 interceptions, too."

Reclaiming the reputation that has long made SDSU one of the most feared defensive units in the country will take some doing. When last seen, the Aztecs were surrendering 215 rushing yards to Ohio in the Frisco Bowl, the most allowed all season by a team that entered the game ranked fourth in the nation in the FBS in run defense. And while there is ample experience at linebacker and in the secondary, Long is holding his breath about a defensive line that graduated all three starters last season and offers just one senior among the seven players on the depth chart heading into fall camp.

Anticipating the need for an ideal teacher in getting the team's defensive front up to speed, Long hired former Aztecs head coach Brady Hoke, who has worked on the defensive side of the ball in 10 of his 13 stops as a college coach. In 2018, Hoke, who was the head coach at SDSU in 2009-10, served as the defensive line coach for the NFL's Carolina Panthers. He's also been a defensive line coach at Michigan, Oregon State and Western Michigan. He was the defensive coordinator at Oregon in 2016.

"I think Brady's the best defensive line coach I've been around," said Long, who was hired by Hoke as the Aztecs' defensive coordinator in 2009. "I've only coached with so many D-line coaches, and I think he absolutely knows the techniques that are required to play that position. He knows the mentality that's required to play at that position, and he is really good at teaching young players how to do things the right way."

Hoke is also a proven motivator, taking an SDSU program that endured 10 straight non-winning seasons and guiding it to just its second bowl game since 1998, when the Aztecs beat Navy in the 2010 Poinsettia Bowl to finish 9-4. At the time, it marked the most wins in a single season since 1995 when SDSU finished 8-4.

At linebacker, SDSU boasts one of the top players in the nation in first-team All-MW pick Kyahva Tezino, and also returns starter Troy Cassidy and two-year letter winner Andrew Aleki.

There's also starting experience in the secondary in Long's signature 3-3-5 scheme, in junior safeties Trenton Thompson and Tariq Thompson, as well as senior Kyree Woods, who is moving to safety after starting 10 games last season at cornerback

DL

POSITION BREAKDOWN

When Rocky Long first approached former Aztecs head coach Brady Hoke about becoming the team's defensive line coach, the invitation came with a word of caution.

"I told him they were really young when he decided to take the job, and he said, 'OK, that's fine,' " Long said.

That was before Hoke got a chance to size up his pupils.

"He said, 'You know, we've got a long way to go.' I said, 'I told you that when I hired you.' With all those young guys, I figured they needed an old coach."

And one not averse to a challenge.

The Aztecs graduated all three starters from last year's squad. This season's lone senior — tackle Myles Cheatum — started three games in 2018, but started eight times as a sophomore in 2017.

Presently, the top three players on the depth chart include Cheatum, and defensive ends Connor Mitchell and Keshawn Banks, both of whom are sophomores. Banks saw action in 12 of the team's 13 games last season as a true freshman, while Mitchell played in all 13 games after redshirting in 2017.

Sam Hines, a redshirt freshman, is currently listed as the backup to Cheatum at tackle, while Jalil Lecky, a 6-5, 240-pound redshirt junior, is No. 2 behind Banks at one of the defensive end spots. The backups to Mitchell are Cameron Thomas, brother of offensive lineman Zachary Thomas, and Daniel Okpoko. Both are 6-5, 260-pound redshirt freshmen.

Not surprisingly, the team's 2019 recruiting class included six defensive linemen.

"I think we're OK if you're just looking at the top three or four guys," said Long, "but our depth issue there is a huge concern. Some of the younger guys that have already been with us have to develop so that they're better in fall camp than they were in the spring."

POSITION BREAKDOWN

The tweet was posted in mid-January, a social media announcement from linebacker Kyahva Tezino that prompted sighs of relief so loud they likely echoed for miles around Montezuma Mesa.

"After a lot of prayer and talking with my family, I have to decided to return to SDSU for my senior season."

Exhale.

Is there a better defensive player in the Mountain West? The voting for last year's MW Defensive Player of the Year would suggest one actually exists, with Fresno State linebacker Jeff Allison receiving the accolades despite numbers not reflecting the accomplishments of Tezino.

Where Allison finished with 109 total tackles, Tezino collected 127. Where Allison posted an average of 9.1 tackles per game, Tezino averaged 9.8. Where Allison had six tackles for loss, Tezino had 14.5. And where Allison had a sack total of 0.5, Tezino finished with 8.5.

In the event such discrepancies partially fueled Tezino's decision to return, rather than enter the NFL draft, opposing offenses would do well to brace themselves.

One of two returning Aztecs to earn first-team all-league honors last season (offensive lineman Keith Ismael), Tezino's tackle total of 127 last season was the most by an SDSU player in 21 years and the eighth-most in the program's single-season history. The only Aztec player on either side of the ball to play every snap last season, Tezino ranked first in the MW in solo tackles per game (5.38) and recorded six games with double-digit tackle totals, including 15 against Air Force, 10 of them solo.

"He's got great instincts and he loves to play," Long said. "Having great instincts, to me, means that a guy is able to diagnose plays quicker than other people. And he just really loves to play football. When you have that part of it, you play with energy, you play with enthusiasm and you play physical."

Tezino enters fall camp flanked at his middle linebacker spot by junior Andrew Aleki and sophomore Caden McDonald. Despite currently being positioned as the backup to McDonald at one of the outside linebacker spots, senior Troy Cassidy also figures heavily into the mix. Cassidy, who has played in 37 consecutive games, the longest streak on the team, started 12 games last season.

DB

POSITION BREAKDOWN

Unlike last season, where youth was a concern outside of senior safety Parker Baldwin, the Aztecs' secondary has emerged from its growing pains to possibly become one of the team's strongest units.

Said Long: "We have enough players in the secondary that I think our secondary could be pretty good."

While fall camp will necessarily bring competition, SDSU is largely set at all five positions in the defensive backfield, led by junior safety Tariq Thompson. Currently positioned as the team's starter at its Field Warrior position, Thompson has started every game (26) since arriving on campus in 2017. Tabbed a freshman All-American by USA Today, who has twice been named to the all-MW second team, Thompson looks to take a step forward this season after recording 60 tackles (38 solo) in 2018, including five tackles for loss. He also had a pair of interceptions and two forced fumbles.

The cornerback spot also appears to be locked down, with the starting spots going to senior Luc Barcoo and sophomore Darren Hall, who last season was twice named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week before making his first career start. Hall started the final three games of the season, finishing the campaign with 45 tackles (34 solo), two interceptions, two TFL, a sack and a forced fumble.

Barcoo, who made his debut with the Aztecs last season after transferring from nearby Grossmont College, appeared in 11 games in 2018, contributing 20 tackles (12 solo), an interception and four pass breakups.

Senior Nolan Harris and redshirt freshman Cedarious Barfield enter fall camp as the backups at cornerback to Hall and Barcoo, respectively.

Junior Taylor Hawkins emerged from spring drills listed No. 1 on the depth chart at the team's safety (Boundary Warrior) position, while junior Dwayne Johnson, Jr., is No. 1 at the Aztec spot.

Hawkins, a two-time letter winner, played in all 13 games last season, making five starts. He posted 35 tackles (19 solo) and led the Aztecs with six tackles on specials teams. Johnson, Jr. is battling to see extended playing time with SDSU for the time since arriving on campus in 2016. Assigned to the Aztec spot, one of the team's most demanding positions, the 6-2, 215-pound Johnson appeared in 13 games on special teams. He also played in 12 of SDSU's 13 games in 2017, making one start.

Junior Trenton Thompson, who started eight times last year and finished with the fourth-most tackles (57) on the team, and sophomore Rashad Scott are currently listed as the backups at the Boundary Warrior and Aztec spots, respectively.

How high did John Baron II set the crossbar?

Matt Araiza is about to find out.

Baron, whose exploits earned him semifinalist status in the running for last year's Lou Groza Award, annually presented to the nation's top kicker, finished his SDSU career ranked first in 50-yard field goals (six); second in field-goal percentage (.833) and field goals (50); third in PATs (135) and points (285); and fourth in PAT percentage (.985).

In 2018, Baron was named the MW Special Teams Player of the Week five times in 12 chances.

Araiza, who like Baron is a left-footed kicker, redshirted last season after posting a career at nearby Rancho Bernardo High that saw him connect on 37-of-48 field goals with a long of 53. He was also the team's punter, averaging 41.7 yards with a long of 71. Araiza will also serve as the backup to Aztecs' senior punter to Brandon Heicklen, an All-MW honorable mention selection last season.

"We've got a proven punter and a very talented kicker who has never kicked in a college game," Long said. "We had a really good kicker the last three or four years, so we haven't seen (Araiza) in a real game yet. He's a very talented guy with an unbelievable leg. When he hits it right, you hear it coming off the ball. If he hits it right on a kickoff, it's going out of the end zone. Now it's a matter of him kicking consistently."

Heicklen, who also serves as the team's holder on PATs and field goal attempts, averaged 41.8 yards in 2018 with a net average of 39.5. Heicklen had gone 17 games and 81 punts without a touchback prior to having one on the second punt of the game last season at Fresno State. He had the most punts in the FBS last season (68) with one or fewer touchbacks.

Junior Turner Bernard, who has started every game since 2017 (he started the first four in 2016 before being injured), returns as the team's long snapper, while senior tight end Parker Houston will again handle the duties as SDSU's short snapper.

At present, tailback Juwan Washington is listed as the team's kick returner, while sophomore Jordan Byrd is penciled in as No. 1 at punt returner.

Rocky Long
HEAD COACH

→ Led SDSU to its first back-to-back 11-win campaigns in the program's 95-year history (2015-16).

In the 20-year history of the Mountain West, no football coach is more synonymous with success than Aztec head coach Rocky Long.

Named San Diego State's 18th head coach on Jan. 12, 2011, he begins his ninth year at the helm of the Aztecs. He was also the squad's defensive coordinator from 2009 through 2016.

Long is the winningest head coach in the history of the Mountain West and has helped usher in two of the biggest turnarounds at conference schools - New Mexico and San Diego State.

Over the last 10 seasons (two as defensive coordinator and eight as head coach and defensive coordinator), Long helped institute a hard-nosed, blue-collar, physical-style of football on The Mesa that revitalized a program that had been struggling to find an identity for decades.

Now firmly established, that identity has taken the San Diego State football program to heights that would have been unthinkable over a decade ago. The Aztecs have been to a school-record nine consecutive bowl games and produced three straight 10-win campaigns (2015-17) for the first time in program history.

This SDSU run has placed Aztec football among the best in the state and in the nation.

Since 2010, San Diego State's 80-39 record (67.2 percent) trails only Stanford among the seven FBS schools in California in winning percentage while ranking ahead of USC, Fresno State, UCLA, Cal and San José State. With 80 victories in their last 119 games, the Aztecs have also equaled their win total from the previous 197 contests (80-117).

In addition, the Scarlet and Black has posted 39 victories since the beginning of the 2015 campaign, marking the 10th-highest win total nationally.

With nine consecutive bowl appearances, San Diego State is also one of just 14 FBS schools to advance to postseason play every season since 2010 and just one of two, along with Boise State, to make a bowl appearance each of the last nine seasons from a Group of 5 conference.

Long's ninth Aztec team is a veteran group that many have picked as a favorite to contend in the West Division of the Mountain West.

→ The Foundation

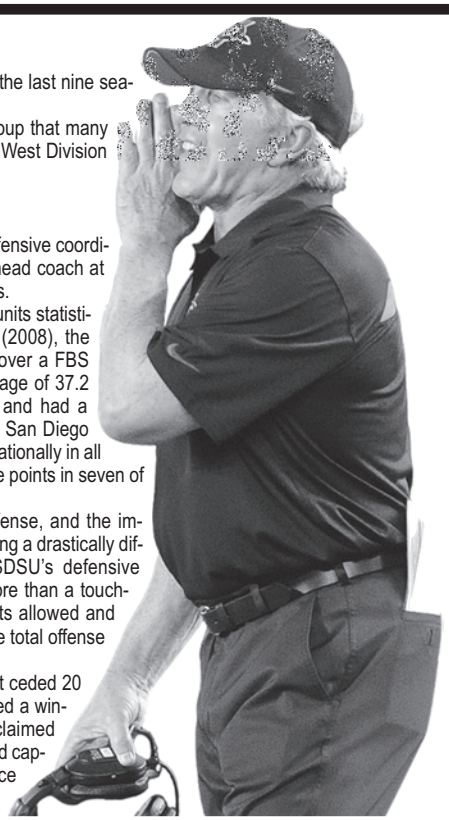
In December 2008, Long was named defensive coordinator at San Diego State after serving as head coach at his alma mater, New Mexico, for 11 seasons.

He inherited one of the worst defensive units statistically in the country. The previous season (2008), the Aztecs went 2-10 and posted one victory over a FBS team. The team's defense allowed an average of 37.2 points, 460.8 yards, 247.5 rushing yards and had a passing efficiency defense rating of 151.5. San Diego State also ranked among the bottom eight nationally in all four of those categories, allowing 35 or more points in seven of its final eight games of the season.

Enter Long and his attacking 3-3-5 defense, and the improvement was immediate. Despite employing a drastically different style, Long, in his first year as SDSU's defensive coordinator in 2009, managed to shave more than a touchdown a game off the team's average points allowed and took more than 78 yards per outing off of the total offense allowed figure.

In 2010, Long built a top-40 defense that ceded 20 points or less six times, as the Aztecs posted a winning record for the first time in 12 years, claimed nine victories for the first time since 1977, and captured a bowl victory for the first time since 1969.



Rocky Long - Head Coach

NINE STRAIGHT BOWL GAME APPEARANCES ▶ 21 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

→ Building On Success

Following the departure of the previous head coach, Long took over the program entering the 2011 campaign, while continuing to serve as the defensive coordinator.

The 2011 campaign was no different, as he became the first Aztec head coach to lead the team to a bowl game in his debut season. SDSU compiled an 8-5 record, including its first 3-0 start in 30 years, while also snapping a 19-game losing streak against Pac-10/12 foes and a 23-game skid vs. schools from automatic-qualifying BCS conferences.

In 2012, Long garnered his second Mountain West Coach-of-the-Year award after guiding the Aztecs to their first conference championship since 1998 and a third straight bowl appearance. Despite a modest fifth-place prediction in the MW preseason poll, Long and SDSU closed out the regular season by winning seven consecutive games, matching the program's longest victory streak since 1980-81.

During that stretch, the Aztecs ranked fifth in the nation in allowing 4.7 yards per play, while limiting the opposition to 19 points or less on five occasions.

In 2013, Long directed SDSU to an unprecedented fourth straight postseason appearance, capped by an impressive 49-24 victory over Buffalo in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

With Long at the controls, the 2013 Aztecs became just the 19th team out of 488 from 1980-2013 to advance to a bowl game after starting the season with an 0-3 record. The gritty SDSU squad flashed its mettle down the stretch, rallying from fourth-quarter deficits in five games and led the FBS Division with three victories when trailing by 14 points or more.

In 2014, San Diego State advanced to its fifth straight bowl game, tying for first in the Western Division of the Mountain West. The Aztecs finished in the top 20 nationally in nearly every defensive category, including scoring defense (13th) and total defense (16th). In addition, SDSU posted a perfect 6-0 record at home during the regular season.

The 2015 Aztecs built on their success from a year prior. After opening the season with a 1-3 mark, SDSU ran the gamut with 10 straight wins and a blemish-free 8-0 mark against MW opponents. San Diego State earned its second Mountain West title since 2012, its first outright league championship since 1969 and the 20th conference crown in program history. The Aztecs matched a school record with their first 11-win campaign since 1969, defeating Cincinnati in the Hawai'i Bowl, 42-7, marking their sixth consecutive bowl game appearance.

Long's Aztecs didn't slow down in 2016. SDSU again tied the school record with another 11-win season, the fourth in school history. It was the first time in the program's 94-year history San Diego State produced back-to-back 11-win campaigns. Behind a convincing 34-10 Las Vegas Bowl win over Houston on national television, the Aztecs won consecutive bowl games for the first time in the Division I era and the first time since 1966 and 1967. Additionally, SDSU finished ranked No. 25 in the AP and Amway Coaches Poll. It was the first time the Aztecs finished in the Top 25 in the Coaches Poll for the first time since also being ranked 25th in 1986.

Long and the Aztecs kept the momentum rolling during the 2017 campaign, posting their third consecutive 10-win season (10-3) for the first time in program history. Behind a powerful rushing attack, led by FBS consensus All-American running back Rashaad Penny, the Aztecs became one of just seven FBS schools to record at least 10 victories in a prolific three-year span, joining Alabama, Clemson, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Wisconsin.

In 2018, San Diego State made its ninth straight bowl game appearance, as the Scarlet and Black became one of just five teams in the country to fashion a winning streak of at least six games in each of the last four seasons, along with Alabama, Clemson, Ohio State and Oklahoma. Additionally, the Aztecs clinched a winning season for the ninth consecutive year, which marks the second-longest streak in program history since a 17-year stretch from 1961-77.

→ The Background

Long had already made the transition from defensive coordinator to head coach once before, as he directed New Mexico to unparalleled success from 1998-2008. During those 11 years, Long compiled a 65-69 record, including seven seasons with six victories or more.

Long Tidbits

→ Long was one of four NCAA players that visited U.S. servicemen in Vietnam in the summer of 1971. Along with Johnny Musso (Alabama), Lydell Mitchell (Penn State) and Stan Mauldin (Texas), Long spent two weeks in the country going to different U.S. bases.

→ Long is a member of both the University of New Mexico Hall of Honor (inducted in 1996) and the New Mexico Sports Hall of Fame (inducted in 2011).

→ Long met his wife, Debby, while coaching the Pi Beta Phi sorority team in the spring of 1971. He guided the sorority to consecutive undefeated championship seasons in 1971 and 1972. Long's defense was not scored upon in any game in either year.

→ Bobby Knight paid Long a home visit and recruited the two-sport athlete to play basketball at Army.

→ Long was a three-time academic all-conference selection, earned the WAC Scholar-Athlete Award (1970) and was an honorable mention Academic All-American in 1969. He earned a coveted NCAA postgraduate scholarship in 1974.

→ Long has been on the winning sideline of the San Diego State-New Mexico game in 14 straight meetings. He won the first eight meetings as the head coach at UNM and has been on the sidelines as the defensive coordinator or head coach in Aztec victories in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2014 and 2017.

→ Long was the starting quarterback at UNM when the Lobos posted consecutive winning seasons in 1970-71. That was the only time that occurred in the 33 seasons between 1964 and 1996.

→ At New Mexico, he left the program as the all-time leading rusher (2,071 yards) and threw 23 interceptions in 30 career games.

To put that accomplishment in perspective, consider that since 1984, the Lobos are 82-179 with only five six-plus win seasons in the 20 campaigns without Long at the helm.

At New Mexico, Long compiled a school-record 65 victories and led the Lobos to five bowl game appearances in his final seven seasons, despite inheriting a team that had only three winning seasons the previous 15 years. His teams were also bowl eligible in seven of his final eight campaigns.

Long, the 2002 Mountain West Coach of the Year, has earned a national reputation for producing one of the nation's stingiest defensive units. In his final nine campaigns in Albuquerque, Long's defensive units ranked among the top 30 in fewest yards allowed six times and among the top 40 nationally against the rush every year. In addition, six times his units were among the top 26 in fewest rushing yards allowed per game, including fifth-place finishes in both 2001 and 2003.

While at New Mexico, Long coached 13 players selected in the NFL Draft, 10 players who earned All-America honors and 44 first-team all-conference selections. In addition, four Lobos garnered Academic All-America accolades five times during his tenure.

And Long does not mince words when describing what his vision for his San Diego State football program is.

"Everybody should anticipate that this program eventually will be competing for conference championships, year-in and year-out," Long said. "Now, how many you win is determined by a whole lot of factors, but we ought to be able to get to the point where we compete yearly for it."

Prior to accepting the head coaching position at New Mexico, Long served as defensive coordinator for 12 seasons at three different schools. He was the defensive coordinator for two years under Bob Toledo at UCLA in 1996-97, for five seasons at Oregon State from 1991-95, and for five campaigns at Wyoming from 1981-85.

He also served as an assistant coach at TCU and the CFL's

British Columbia Lions after starting his career at New Mexico as a graduate assistant coach in 1972.

Originally a defensive back, Long became a three-year starter at quarterback for the Lobos from 1969-71. He earned team MVP honors three times and was the Western Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year as a senior. He is a 1974 graduate of New Mexico and was awarded an NCAA postgraduate scholarship.

→ Coaching Highlights

■ Was named the 18th head coach in Aztec football history in January 2011 and became the first San Diego State head coach to lead the team to a bowl game in his debut campaign.

■ Has amassed the most victories of any Mountain West head coach since the league's inception in 1999.

■ Under Long's direction, the Aztecs became the first team in NCAA FBS history to register consecutive 2,000-yard rushing seasons by different players (Donnel Pumphrey in 2016, Rashaad Penny in 2017) and just the second with a pair of 2,000-yard rushers (also Texas).

■ In 2016, he guided MW-champion SDSU to its fourth 11-win campaign in program history, accomplished consecutively for the first time in program history. SDSU won its second-straight bowl game for the first time in the Division I era. Long's three bowl game victories are the most in SDSU's Division I era.

■ Was the Mountain West Coach of the Year for the third time in 2015. Long commandeered an Aztec team that won its final 10 games of the season en route to an 11-3 mark, the program's first 11-win season since 1969. SDSU produced an 8-0 record in MW play, the 20th conference championship in program history and a win over Cincinnati in the Hawai'i Bowl.

■ Since his arrival on The Mesa, a total of 18 Aztecs have been chosen in the NFL Draft, including three in 2017, which tied for the most by a Group of 5 school and the most for SDSU since 2013.

■ San Diego State had at least one player selected in each NFL Draft from 2011-15.

■ Came to San Diego State to be the team's defensive coordinator in December 2008.

■ Arrived at SDSU after serving as head coach at New Mexico from 1998-2008. He was tabbed the league's coach of the year in 2002.

■ Compiled a UNM-record 65 victories and led the Lobos to five bowl game appearances in his final seven seasons. His teams were bowl eligible in seven of his last eight campaigns.

■ In his final nine seasons in Albuquerque, Long's defensive units ranked among the top 30 in fewest yards allowed six times and among the top 40 against the rush every year. In both 2001 and 2003, New Mexico's defense ranked fifth nationally in fewest rushing yards allowed per game.

■ Prior to accepting the head coaching position at New Mexico, he served as defensive coordinator for 12 seasons at three different schools. He was the defensive coordinator for two years under Bob Toledo at UCLA in 1996-97, for five seasons at Oregon State from 1991-95, and for five campaigns at Wyoming from 1981-85.

Eight-for-Eight

Below is a list of the six current coaches who have guided their current school to a bowl game in each of their first eight seasons as the head coach at an institution.

Head Coach	School
Mark Dantonio	Michigan State
Brian Kelly	Notre Dame
Rocky Long	San Diego State
Nick Saban	Alabama
David Shaw	Stanford
Dabo Swinney	Clemson

■ Also served as an assistant coach at TCU, with the CFL's British Columbia Lions and started his career at New Mexico as a graduate assistant coach in 1972.

→ Playing Experience

■ Originally a defensive back, Long was a three-year starter at quarterback for the Lobos from 1969-71. He was the team's MVP three times and the WAC Offensive Player of the Year as a senior.

■ Long played professionally in the CFL with British Columbia in 1972-73 and 1975-76. He also competed in the World Football League with the Detroit Wheels in 1974.

■ Attended Alta Loma High School in Alta Loma, Calif.

→ Education

■ He is a 1974 graduate of New Mexico with a bachelor's degree in secondary education and was awarded an NCAA postgraduate scholarship. Long was a three-time academic all-conference pick and received the WAC Scholar-Athlete Award in 1970.

→ Personal

■ Long and his wife, Debby, have two daughters, Roxanne and Hannah.

■ Both of Long's daughters were Division I student-athletes and have coaching ties. In her first season as the head women's volleyball coach at Division II Queens University, Hannah led the Royals to the program's first NCAA Sweet Sixteen. She was a five-time conference coach of the year honoree at Division III Southwestern University as its winningest women's volleyball coach (.794). Collegiately, she was a two-sports athlete at Portland State. Roxanne, who played collegiately at Oklahoma, was a successful basketball coach at Rogers State, before stepping down to pursue her Ph.D.

■ With 35 years of collegiate coaching experience, including seven as a head coach, Jeff Horton begins his ninth season at San Diego State.

■ Prior to the 2015 season, Horton was promoted to associate head coach and offensive coordinator. In addition, he is entering his ninth season overseeing the running backs.

■ In his previous four seasons on The Mesa, Horton served as assistant head coach and running backs coach.

■ Since 2011, when Horton was named SDSU's running backs coach, San Diego State ranks 12th nationally in average yards per carry (5.1), 15th in rushing yards per game (220.1) and 18th in rushing touchdowns (213).

■ In his eight years with San Diego State, Horton has coached each of his starting running backs to all-Mountain West honors, including Super Bowl champion Ronnie Hillman (2011), Adam Muema (2012-13), Donnel Pumphrey (2014-16), Rashaad Penny (2017) and Juwan Washington (2018).

■ With Horton's assistance, Washington continued the Aztecs' fine tradition of running backs, earning all-MW honorable mention in 2018. Despite missing 4.5 games due to injury, Washington still ranked among the league leaders in several categories, including rushing yards per game (2nd, 111.0), rushing average (5.0), rushing touchdowns (t-4th, 10) and rushing yards (5th, 999).

■ Under Horton's tutelage in 2017, Penny capped off his stellar senior campaign becoming just the third consensus All-American in program history while finishing fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest placement by an Aztec since Marshall Faulk took fourth in 1993. In addition, Penny recorded the fifth-best NCAA FBS single-season rushing total in history with a school-record 2,248 yards and finished with a career-average of 7.49 yards per carry, which represents the third-highest total among FBS schools since 1996.

■ Collectively, SDSU boasted the nation's No. 10 rushing offense in 2017, averaging 252.5 yards per game. The Scarlet and Black also occupied the 11th spot in yards per carry (5.71) while tying for 20th in rushing touchdowns (33). In addition, Horton coordinated an Aztec offense that threw just four interceptions that season, which ranked second in the country.

■ Horton was also instrumental in the development of Nick Bawden, who was recruited to San Diego State as a quarterback—even starting two games at the position as a true freshman in 2014—before switching to fullback the following year. Emerging as the starter in 2016, Bawden became the lead blocker for two of the most prolific running backs in school history in 2016-17, with the Aztecs ranking eighth nationally in rushing yards per game (257.9) and fifth in yards per rush (5.7) during that stretch. For his efforts, Bawden earned first-team All-America honors from Pro Football Focus in 2016, grading out as the top blocking fullback. He was drafted by the Detroit Lions in the seventh round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

■ In 2016, Horton was named the FootballScoop Running Backs Coach of the Year when SDSU became the first team in NCAA FBS history to produce a 2,000-yard rusher (Pumphrey) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Penny) in the same season. The Aztecs set Division I-era single-season records in rushing yards (3,680), rushing touchdowns (34), rushing yards per carry (5.8) and points (493).

■ Horton coached Pumphrey to one of the best rushing careers in FBS history. A Heisman candidate, Doak Walker Award finalist and a three-time All-American, Pumphrey finished his career as the NCAA FBS career record holder in rushing yards (6,405) and was fifth in all-purpose yards (7,515), tied for eighth in overall touchdowns (67) and ninth in rushing touchdowns (62). He was picked in the fourth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

■ The 2015 Aztecs also made history, rushing for a then-school record 3,266 yards and producing two 1,000-yard rushers (Pumphrey, Chase Price) for the first time in program history. SDSU ran for 2,000 yards as a team and produced a 1,000-yard rusher for the sixth year in a row in 2015. The team also had 10 straight games with at least 200 yards rushing to close the season.

■ In 2014, San Diego State set a then-school record for yards per carry, averaging 5.4 yards per rush, ranked 13th nationally.

■ Helped Ronnie Hillman receive All-America recognition from the Associated Press in 2011 after the Aztec running back rushed for a conference-record 1,711 yards, which ranked fourth nationally, and added 19 touchdowns. Hillman, who was one of 10 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award that season, was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos in April 2012.

→ Previous Experience

■ Came to The Mesa after spending the final five games of the 2010 campaign as the interim head coach at Minnesota. With Horton at the helm, the Gophers went 2-3 with victories over a pair of bowl-bound teams in Illinois and Iowa after beginning the year with a 1-6 mark.

■ As the co-offensive coordinator, the Gophers saw drastic improvements from 2009 in the NCAA rankings in total offense (+34 spots), rushing offense (+26), passing offense (+18), scoring offense (+11), turnovers (+82), time of possession (+82) and penalties (+21).

■ Prior to his time at Minnesota, he was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions in 2009, working with No. 1 overall draft pick Matthew Stafford. Stafford started 10 games and threw for more than 2,000 yards.

■ NFL career started with the St. Louis Rams from 2006-08, where he was the assistant offensive line coach, special assistant to the head coach and an offensive assistant.

■ Was on the sidelines in six bowl games as the quarterbacks coach at Wisconsin from 1999-2005. The Badgers tallied four postseason victories and claimed the 1999 Big Ten championship.

■ Coached Wisconsin signal-caller Brooks Bollinger to a 30-12 record over his four seasons as a starter. Bollinger and quarterback Jim Sorgi were picked in the NFL Draft during his time in Madison.

■ Was the head coach at UNLV for five years. In 1994, he was named the Big West Coach of the Year after leading the Rebels to the conference title and a berth in the Las Vegas Bowl.

■ Compiled a 7-4 record at Nevada in his first season as a head coach in 1993. The Wolf Pack led the nation in offense that campaign, including 4,373 yards passing.

■ In addition, he spent six years as a wide receivers, special teams or running backs coach at Nevada (1985-89, 1992) and two campaigns as an assistant head coach, running backs and wide receivers coach at UNLV (1990-91).

■ Started his collegiate coaching career in 1984 as a graduate assistant at Minnesota under head coach Lou Holtz.

→ At San Diego State

■ Zach Arnett enters his second season as San Diego State's defensive coordinator and will coach the linebackers for the sixth year in a row.

■ Arnett was promoted to linebackers coach in the spring of 2014 after spending three years as a defensive graduate assistant.

■ With Arnett on staff, the SDSU defense has ranked among the nation's best in several categories over the last five seasons, including interceptions (1st, 87), rush defense (6th, 121.1), total defense (6th, 316.4), scoring defense (9th, 19.7), turnovers forced (t-10th, 98), interception returns for touchdowns (t-10th, 11) and pass defense (11th, 195.2).

■ Last year, Arnett oversaw the emergence of Kyahva Tezino, a first-team all-Mountain West performer who led the Aztecs with 127 tackles, including a league-best 70 solo stops, which ranked 29th in the nation.

■ In 2017, Ronley Lakalaka merited second-team all-MW honors after topping the squad with 82 tackles.

■ Under Arnett's tutelage in 2016, Calvin Munson paced the Aztecs with 116 tackles on the season and 17 quarterback hurries to go with 11 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks and three pass breakups. Munson finished his career ranked sixth at SDSU in tackles (301) and ninth in sacks (18.0). He was a three-time all-Mountain West pick, including a first-team selection each of his last two campaigns. Munson signed as an undrafted free agent with the New York Giants.

■ For the second straight season in 2015, two Aztec linebackers garnered all-Mountain West accolades. Munson was named to the first team, while Jake Fely was a second-team honoree.

■ Two San Diego State linebackers earned all-conference accolades in his first year as a full-time member of the coaching staff, as Munson and Josh Gavert earned honorable mention all-conference recognition in 2014.

■ Helped linebacker Nick Tenhaeff earn All-MW honorable mention recognition in 2013. Tenhaeff led the Aztecs with 15.0 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks and was third on the squad with 64 tackles combined, including 43 solo stops.

■ Coached two Aztecs - Fely and Derek Largent - to all-league accolades in 2012. Fely had 90 tackles, and led the team in tackles for loss (11.5), sacks (7) and forced fumbles (2) en route to second-team honors, while Largent was an honorable mention pick with 61 tackles (9.5 TFL), 6.5 sacks, three fumble recoveries, two interceptions and a forced fumble.

→ Playing Experience

■ Prior to his arrival on Montezuma Mesa, Arnett played collegiately for four seasons at New Mexico under current San Diego State head coach Rocky Long.

■ Was a standout linebacker for the Lobos from 2005-08, lettering four times and serving as team captain during his senior campaign.

■ Saw action in 47 games at New Mexico, recording 200 tackles (84 solo, 116 assisted), with four sacks, six forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

■ Tied for the FBS lead in 2008 with six forced fumbles. Of the five players that had six forced fumbles that season, Arnett played the fewest number of games (12).

■ Started all 12 contests as a senior, recording 92 tackles, including 11 behind the line of scrimmage, and an MW record-tying six forced fumbles. Helped UNM rank 36th nationally in rushing defense in 2008.

■ During his four-year stint, New Mexico won 25 games and made consecutive bowl game appearances in 2006 and 2007.

■ Excelled in the classroom, where he was a first-team Academic All-American in 2008. Also was a four-time academic all-conference honoree and scholar-athlete.

■ Originally signed to play for the UNM baseball team coming out of high school, but was given a football scholarship the summer before the start of his true freshman season.

■ Attended La Cueva High School in Albuquerque, competing in both football and baseball. Was a two-time all-state pick at linebacker and three-time selection at catcher.

→ Education

■ Graduated from New Mexico in 2009, with his bachelor's degree in history and a minor in political science.

→ Personal

■ Arnett and his wife, Emily, have one son, Case.

Ron Caragher - Tight Ends

NINE STRAIGHT BOWL GAME APPEARANCES ▶ 21 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

→ At San Diego State

■ Ron Caragher returns to the sidelines this season as the Aztecs' tight ends coach and passing game coordinator after spending the 2018 campaign as the team's on-campus recruiting coordinator and quality control for the offense.

→ Previous Coaching Experience

■ Served as head coach for San José State (2013-16) and the University of San Diego (2007-12), compiling an overall record of 63-52 in 10 seasons.

■ Coached 32 all-Mountain West honorees, nine postseason all-star participants and five NFL draft picks during his tenure at SJSU.

■ Led the Spartans to their third bowl game since 1991 with a 27-16 triumph over Georgia State in the 2015 AutoNation Cure Bowl.

■ That season, SJSU finished second nationally in fewest passing yards allowed (157.8) and net punting (42.42) while ranking fifth in completion percentage (.675), 12th in third-down conversions (.478) and 18th in red zone offensive efficiency (.889).

■ In his first year at the helm in 2013, the Spartans produced a winning record in their inaugural Mountain West campaign, posting a 5-3 ledger in the West Division and a 6-6 record overall.

■ During his first season in Silicon Valley, Caragher oversaw an offense that set 10 single-season team records. SJSU was sixth nationally in passing offense (355.9 yds), 15th in total offense (493.3) and averaged 32.4 points per game.

■ Under his tutelage, quarterback David Fales threw for more than 4,000 yards in 2013 and became a sixth-round draft pick of the Chicago Bears.

■ In the 2013 season finale, the Spartans handed undefeated and 16th-ranked Fresno State its first loss of the season in a 62-52 shootout victory to become bowl eligible.

■ Guided USD to a trio of Pioneer Football League co-championships in 2007, 2011 and 2012.

■ Twice nominated for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award (2007, 2011), which recognizes the top head coach in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

■ His 2007 Toreros squad finished second in the final Sports Network mid-major poll, occupying the top spot among all FCS teams in scoring (44.36) and passing efficiency (197.35) while ranking third in total offense (483.09).

■ Named the Pioneer Football League's Coach of the Year in 2011 after leading USD to a 9-2 record for the third time in five years and a FCS Coaches Top-25 ranking during the regular season.

■ Served a four-year stint as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Kentucky from 2003-06.

■ During the 2006 campaign, the Wildcats posted an 8-5 record, capped by a victory over Clemson in the Music City Bowl, which marked the program's first bowl win since 1984.

■ Was promoted to full-time assistant coach in 1996 at his alma mater UCLA after spending two seasons as a graduate assistant with the Bruins.

■ Coached wide receivers, kickers and punters during his seven-year tenure in Westwood, working alongside Rocky Long, who was UCLA's defensive coordinator in 1996-97.

→ Playing Experience

■ Won four letters at UCLA serving as a backup quarterback during his collegiate playing career from 1985-1989.

■ Was a part of a Bruin program that captured four consecutive bowl victories (1986 Rose, 1986 Freedom, 1987 Aloha, 1989 Cotton).

■ Was selected as a team captain for a single game during his senior year.

→ Education

■ Earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from UCLA in 1990, before completing his master's degree in 1995 from the university in administrative studies.

→ Personal

■ Caragher and his wife, Wendy, have three sons, Josh, Ryan and Scott.

■ Hunkie Cooper enters his fifth season at San Diego State, overseeing the wide receiver position.
■ Upon his arrival on The Mesa, Cooper reunited with his college coach Jeff Horton. Horton, SDSU's associate head coach/offensive coordinator/running backs coach, was Cooper's head coach at UNLV.
■ In 2018, Cooper coached a wide receiver corps that helped the Aztecs rank 12th nationally in passing yards per completion (14.66). He also witnessed the program's best individual performance at the position since 2009 when senior Fred Trevillion finished with 189 yards receiving yards and two touchdowns on four catches at Fresno State.
■ Under Cooper's guidance, Mikah Holder received all-Mountain West honorable mention as a senior in 2017 after leading the Aztecs with career highs of 43 receptions and 602 yards, which were more than the totals of the next two SDSU players combined.
■ Cooper also played a pivotal role in Holder's development during the 2016 campaign, as the Aztec wide receiver topped the squad in receiving yards (581) and touchdown catches (6) while ranking seventh nationally and third in the Mountain West in yards per catch (21.5). Cooper's assistance with Donnel Pumphrey also proved essential that season, as the SDSU running back tied with Holder for the team lead in receptions (27) for 231 yards. Pumphrey was a fourth-round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2017 NFL Draft.
■ In 2015, Cooper coached Holder to a breakout season, which included a team-high 439 receiving yards and six touchdown catches. He also assisted Pumphrey in a junior year that resulted in Sports Illustrated honorable mention All-America and Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year honors after he led the Aztecs in rushing yards and receptions, one of four players in the nation to accomplish the feat.

→ Previous Experience
■ Prior to his appointment on The Mesa, Cooper served for six seasons as the head coach at Canyon Springs High in Las Vegas.
■ Under Cooper's direction, CSHS made the Sunrise Region playoffs all six years, earning Northeast Sunrise Divisional Coach-of-the-Year honors on three occasions.
■ In 2014, Canyon Springs was the first Sunrise Region team in more than 40 games to beat perennial power Liberty.
■ One of his top players was Pumphrey, a Heisman candidate, All-American and the NCAA FBS career record holder in rushing yards (6,405). He amassed 4,152 yards and 49 touchdowns on 494 attempts (8.4 avg.) over his career at CSHS. In 2012, Pumphrey rushed for 1,491 yards on 160 carries (9.3 avg.) and 19 touchdowns en route to being named the Gatorade Nevada Player of the Year.
■ Began his coaching career with a three-year stint (2006-08) on the Utah Blaze (Arena Football League) coaching staff, working with the team's defensive backs, wide receivers, linebackers and serving as the defensive coordinator.

■ Cooper had one of the greatest careers in Arena Football League history, coming in as the fifth-greatest player in AFL history by the league's Silver Anniversary Committee.
■ Named to the Arena Hall of Fame in 2011.
■ Led the Arizona Rattlers to a pair of AFL championships (1994 and 1997) and was picked as the MVP of the 1997 AFL Championship game.
■ Cooper was the AFL's all-time leader in nearly all return categories upon his retirement in 2005. That same year, he also had his No. 14 jersey retired by the Rattlers.
■ In 2001, Cooper was selected to the all-15th Anniversary first team as both a receiver and linebacker. He finished his career with nearly 9,000 receiving yards to go along with 196 tackles and 15 interceptions, including seven for a touchdown.
■ He was named the Ironman of the Year in both 1999 and 2000.
■ He earned Ironman of the Game honors in ArenaBowl XI, returning a kick for a touchdown and intercepting a Kurt Warner pass for another score, as the Ratters defeated the Iowa Barnstormers, 55-33.
■ Cooper was named the AFL MVP as a rookie in 1993 after totaling 91 receptions for 1,214 yards and 19 touchdowns, and ended up becoming a 12-time all-pro selection.
■ At UNLV, he twice earned All-America honors and all-Big West accolades as a punt returner and kick returner (1989-90).
■ Cooper, who played six different positions with the Rebels, scored four touchdowns as an all-purpose player in his first career Division I game.
■ Was the quarterback for national champion Navarro College in 1989.

→ Education
■ A 1991 graduate of UNLV.

→ Personal
■ Cooper and his wife, Tiffany, have three children: Brianna, AJ, who played football at Southern Oregon, and Destini.

Doug Deakin - Special Teams Coord.

NINE STRAIGHT BOWL GAME APPEARANCES ▶ 21 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

→ At San Diego State

■ Doug Deakin begins his 13th season at San Diego State, a long association which started as a student-athlete and now continues as a full-time assistant coach.

■ Enters his second year as the Aztecs' special teams coordinator and also coached the tight ends during the 2018 campaign.

■ Spent three years as the assistant for football operations with the SDSU program from 2014-17.

■ Also served as a graduate assistant with the Aztecs from 2011-13, working with the defense and special teams.

■ Is one of two SDSU graduates on the full-time coaching staff, joining Mike Schmidt (offensive line).

■ Last year, Deakin oversaw the emergence of tight end Kahale Warring, who received all-Mountain West honorable mention and was a third-round selection by the Houston Texans in the 2019 NFL Draft. Warring led the Aztecs with 31 receptions for 372 yards and three touchdowns in 2018.

■ Under Deakin's watch, placekicker John Baron II became the just the second player to win MW Special Teams Player of the Week honors five times in the same season after Utah's Louie Sakoda accomplished the feat in 2009. Baron, who connected on all five of his field-goal attempts from 50-plus yards, made three game-winning kicks last year, which is tied for the most by an SDSU player in a single season since at least 1996.

→ At San Diego State

■ Brady Hoke returns to The Mesa as the Aztecs' defensive line coach.
■ Spent two seasons as San Diego State's head coach (2009-10), earning Mountain West Coach of the Year honors in 2010 after leading the Aztecs to their first postseason appearance in 12 years with a victory over Navy in the Poinsettia Bowl.
■ Coached 18 all-MW performers during his first stint at SDSU, as well as 25 conference all-academic recipients.
■ Six of his players merited first-team all-MW accolades in 2010, including running back Ronnie Hillman, who was named the league's Freshman of the Year.

→ Previous Experience

■ Has amassed 34 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level including 12 seasons as a FBS head coach at Michigan (2011-14), San Diego State (2009-10) and Ball State (2003-08).
■ Received conference coach-of-the-year recognition in three different leagues as a head coach while posting a 78-72 overall record. During his tenure as a head coach, Hoke's teams have produced 76 all-conference selections.
■ Brings 20 years of experience as a collegiate defensive coach with stints at Grand Valley State (1983), Western Michigan (1984-86), Toledo (1987-88), Oregon State (1989-94), Michigan (1995-2002), Oregon (2016) and Tennessee, where he was named interim head coach for the final two games of the 2017 campaign.
■ Served as head coach at Michigan from 2011-14, guiding the Wolverines to a 31-20 record, including an 18-14 conference ledger. He became the first Michigan head coach to go undefeated at home in his first two seasons since Fielding Yost in 1901-02.
■ Directed the Wolverines to an 11-2 record and a victory in the Allstate Sugar Bowl in his first season on the Ann Arbor campus. For his efforts, Hoke collected the inaugural Hayes-Schembechler Coach of the Year award from the Big Ten Conference coaches while garnering Dave McClain Coach of the Year accolades from the Big Ten media. In addition, he was named the Maxwell Football Club Collegiate Coach of the Year that season and was a finalist for three other national Coach of the Year honors: Bear Bryant, Eddie Robinson and Liberty Mutual.
■ Under Hoke's tutelage at Michigan, a total of 21 Wolverine players received all-Big Ten recognition, including consecutive Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year winners in center David Molk (2011) and left tackle Taylor Lewan (2012-13). In addition, Devin Funchess was named Big Ten Tight End of the Year in 2013.
■ Earned his first head coaching job at his alma mater, Ball State, where he guided the program for six seasons, culminating with a 12-1 campaign in 2008 and an undefeated Mid-American Conference regular season. Ball State earned its first-ever Associated Press top 25 ranking and Hoke was named the 2008 MAC Coach of the Year.
■ Began his coaching career as an assistant at Yorktown (Ind.) High School in 1981 before entering the collegiate ranks as a defensive line coach at Grand Valley State in 1983.

Blane Morgan - Quarterbacks

NINE STRAIGHT BOWL GAME APPEARANCES ▶ 21 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

→ At San Diego State

■ Blane Morgan is in his fifth season at San Diego State as the quarterbacks coach.

■ Under Morgan's guidance last year, Aztec signal-callers ranked second in the Mountain West and 12th nationally with 14.68 passing yards per completion.

■ In addition, Morgan oversaw the development of Ryan Agnew, who posted a 6-1 record in seven starts and owns the sixth-highest winning percentage nationally among any 2019 returner at the position with a minimum of seven starts. In SDSU's victory over Arizona State, Agnew became the first quarterback from a non-Power 5 school to defeat a nationally ranked team from a Power 5 school in his starting debut since South Florida's B.J. Daniels against No. 18 Florida State in 2009.

■ Morgan played a pivotal role in the development of Christian Chapman, who graduated as the Aztecs' winningest starting quarterback with 24 victories.

■ Among the Mountain West leaders during the 2017 campaign, Chapman was first in touchdown-to-interception percentage (3.3, T-27th nationally), second in interception percentage (1.6, 21st nationally), third in pass efficiency rating (139.13, 46th nationally), fourth in touchdown percentage (5.3) and yards per completion (12.83, 47th nationally). Additionally, Chapman went 33 quarters between throwing his first and second interceptions of the year (167 attempts).

■ In 2016, Chapman's 61.0 completion percentage was the third best by an SDSU quarterback since 1996. The redshirt sophomore ranked second in the MW in pass touchdown percentage (11th nationally, 8.0) and touchdown-to-interception percentage (T-23rd nationally, 3.33).

■ The 2015 Aztecs went 12 straight games without throwing an interception, the most in SDSU's Division I era. San Diego State finished the year by going without an interception in 208 passes for the country's longest active streak. The team finished second in the conference with a 142.10 passing efficiency rating and 19th nationally with 14.10 passing yards per completion.

→ Previous Experience

■ Morgan coached at Air Force from 2003-14 in three different capacities. The last eight seasons of his tenure with the Falcons, he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

■ From 2007-14, when Morgan was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Air Force, the Falcons ranked 24th nationally in passing efficiency rating (139.1). During that time, the Falcons ranked third nationally in yards per completion (14.82).

■ As a team, the Falcons enjoyed great success while Morgan served as the offensive coordinator. The Falcons posted a 59-44 record (57.3 percent) and advanced to seven bowl games in that eight-year span.

■ In his first year back on The Mesa, Sanchez coached two all-Mountain West safeties, as Tariq Thompson garnered second-team accolades at the Warrior position, while Parker Baldwin received honorable mention for the second straight season at the signature Aztec spot in Rocky Long's 3-3-5 defense.

→ Previous Coaching Experience

■ Enjoyed an illustrious tenure as head coach at local powerhouse St. Augustine High School from 2009-17, compiling an overall record of 83-29.

■ His 83 victories represent the most in school history.

■ Led the Saints to two CIF San Diego Section championships, three runner-up finishes and five Eastern League titles.

■ In 2016, received the National Football Foundation Meritorious Coach-of-the-Year award.

■ Among his pupils at St. Augustine High was current Aztec safety Tariq Thompson, who was named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and USA Today following the 2017 campaign.

■ Spent 11 years as an assistant in the collegiate ranks, including a four-year stint at Sacramento State from 2005-08, where he served as special teams coordinator while coaching the running backs (2006) and tight ends (2007-08).

■ Hornet special teams were one of the elite units in the Big Sky Conference in 2006, as three Sac State players garnered all-league accolades, including punter Mitch Lively, kick returner Andre Taylor and linebacker Calvin Robinson, who was the team's top performer in both kickoff and punt coverage.

■ In his first season with the Hornets in 2005, Kris Daniels led the Big Sky with an average of 27.5 yards on kickoff returns, earning second-team all-conference honors.

■ Spent one season as defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator at Valparaiso in 2004 while serving as the team's recruiting coordinator.

■ Helped guide the Crusader defense to a No. 1 ranking in Division I-AA, allowing just 128.8 passing yards per game.

Mike Schmidt - Offensive Line

NINE STRAIGHT BOWL GAME APPEARANCES ▶ 21 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

→ At San Diego State

■ Mike Schmidt enters his eighth season as San Diego State's offensive line coach and his 11th as a member of the Aztec staff.

■ Has been influential in SDSU establishing itself as one of the top rushing programs in the country. Since he joined the staff as a full-time assistant coach in 2012, the Aztecs rank 15th nationally in rushing yards per carry (5.0), 15th in rushing yardage per game (216.9) and are tied for 21st in rushing touchdowns (201).

■ During the 2018 campaign, Schmidt coached two all-Mountain West performers in Keith Ismael (first team) and Ryan Pope (second team).

■ In 2017, Schmidt molded a young and inexperienced line into a force that paved the way for consensus All-American Rashaad Penny, who led the nation with 2,027 yards rushing.

■ As a result, Tyler Roemer garnered freshman All-America accolades from USA Today, joining Ismael on the all-MW second team.

■ The 2016 Aztecs set program records in rushing yards (3,680), rushing touchdowns (34), rushing yards per carry (5.8), points (493) and field goals (21). The 5.8 average ranked seventh nationally.

■ In 2016, Schmidt coached Nico Siragusa to USA Today first-team and AP third-team All-America accolades. Over his four years, Siragusa blocked for the all-time leading rusher (Donnel Pumphrey), becoming the first SDSU offensive lineman to be named a first-team all-MW selection twice in league history. He was the second Aztec offensive lineman drafted in a three-year span when he was picked in the fourth round by the Baltimore Ravens.

■ In his first collegiate year playing the right tackle position in 2016, Daniel Brunskill was chosen as a Burlsworth Award nominee and collected second-team all-MW honors.

■ Under his tutelage in 2015, Siragusa and Pearce Slater earned first-team all-MW first-team honors, the first time in conference history that the Aztecs had two first-teamers on the offensive line and the first time in any league since 1998 (WAC - Pacific Division). It was also the fourth straight season multiple offensive linemen earned all-conference honors.

■ The 2015 Aztecs also finished fifth in the nation in red zone offense (94.1 pct.), 14th in rushing yards per game (233.3) and 17th in time of possession (32:43).

■ Terry Poole (first team) and Darrell Greene (honorable mention) both earned all-MW accolades in 2014, marking the third straight season that at least two Aztec offensive linemen were honored by the league. Poole was drafted in the fourth round by the Seattle Seahawks.

■ Under his guidance, SDSU ran for at least 2,000 yards as a team and produced a 1,000-yard rusher for the fifth year in a row in 2013.

■ In 2013, the Aztec offensive line helped pave the way for a rushing attack that totaled over 2,000 yards for the fourth consecutive year for the first time in school history.

■ Coached multiple all-MW selections for the second year in a row in 2013 after Bryce Quigley merited second-team distinction, while Poole received honorable mention.

■ In his first year as assistant coach in 2012, the Aztec offensive line helped establish a team rushing record with 2,869 yards.

■ In 2012, he had three players garner all-MW accolades, including Nik Embernate, who signed a free agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers after collecting first-team honors, Alec Johnson who was a second-team selection, while Quigley landed on the honorable mention squad.

■ Was SDSU's graduate assistant on the offensive side of the ball for two years from 2010-11, working primarily with the offensive line. In 2010, the Aztecs tied for fifth nationally in fewest sacks allowed (0.69/g) and ranked seventh (0.85/g) in the same category in 2011.

■ In 2011, helped mentor Tommie Draheim, who became the first Aztec offensive lineman to earn first-team all-MW recognition since 2003. Draheim inked a free agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs in the spring of 2013 after spending time with the Green Bay Packers and New England Patriots camps in 2012.

■ In 2009, he volunteered as a student assistant with the team while completing his undergraduate degree.

Jashon Sykes - Asst. A.D. - Football Ops

NINE STRAIGHT BOWL GAME APPEARANCES ▶ 21 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

→ At San Diego State

■ Jashon Sykes begins his seventh season at San Diego State as the team's Director of Football Operations and his fifth as the assistant athletic director for football operations, overseeing the day-to-day operations of the football program including scheduling, budgeting, and team travel.

■ Sykes works closely with members of the campus community including the faculty, housing & dining, and academic advising. Other duties include game day management, community outreach, the coordination and planning of team events related to the football program, the annual team awards banquet and special projects.

■ Sykes also serves as the football team's NFL liaison, managing and coordinating pro day, and assisting the potential NFL Aztecs with transitioning from college to the NFL.

■ In addition, Sykes has been an active member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) since 2006. He currently serves as vice president of the AFCA National Committee for Directors of Football Operations.

→ Previous Experience

■ Before his arrival on The Mesa, Sykes spent seven years as an administrator at his alma mater, Colorado, including the last two as the Buffaloes' director of football operations in 2011-12. Also served as director of the team's elite high school summer camp.

■ Returned to the Boulder campus in 2006 following a four-year pro playing career, working as an administrative assistant in recruiting and operations for one season before taking on the role of on-campus recruiting director in 2007-08.

■ Spent two summers with the Denver Broncos as a training camp assistant coach. Worked with the linebackers as an intern in 2007, before assuming a dual role in 2008 with the operations department while assisting the defensive line.

→ Playing Experience

■ Starred at linebacker for Colorado, finishing 10th on the school's all-time list with 330 tackles. Also amassed 33 tackles for a loss and 12.5 quarterback sacks during his collegiate career.

■ Played in all 12 games as a true freshman in 1998, starting four of the last five games of the year, including the Buffaloes' victory over Oregon in the Aloha Bowl. Received first-team freshman All-America honors from The Sporting News after making 52 tackles, including 14 in the regular-season finale against Nebraska.

■ Garnered second-team All-America accolades from Football News and was a first-team all-Big 12 selection by the Associated Press following his sophomore campaign in 1999. Finished second in the conference with 134 tackles (82 solo), becoming just the fifth Colorado sophomore to lead the team in that statistic since 1965. Also topped the nation with a school-record seven forced fumbles.

■ Was named defensive MVP of the Insight.com Bowl that season after recording nine tackles and returning an interception for a touchdown in the Buffaloes' romp over Boston College.

■ Earned honorable mention all-Big 12 recognition as a junior in 2000, after totaling 111 tackles (78 solo), 3.5 sacks, two pass deflections and one interception.

■ Appeared on preseason watch lists for both the Butkus and Lombardi Awards prior to his senior campaign in 2001. Started the first four games that year before suffering a herniated disc. Opted to declare for the NFL Draft in lieu of pursuing a medical redshirt.

■ Played two seasons for the Denver Broncos in 2003 and 2004 after landing on the team's practice squad in 2002. Made 11 starts during the 2003 season, helping the Broncos post the NFL's fourth-ranked defense by collecting 65 tackles, two fumble recoveries and a block punt. Ended his professional playing career with the Washington Redskins.

■ Prepped at Serra High School in Gardena, Calif., landing on multiple All-America lists. Additionally earned a spot on the Long Beach Press-Telegram's prestigious Best-in-the-West Team, receiving a maximum 10 votes. Also won three varsity letters in track as a sprinter and one in basketball.

→ At San Diego State

■ Gary Bernardi begins his first year at San Diego State, where he will work as an offensive analyst on head coach Rocky Long's staff.

→ Previous Collegiate Coaching Experience

■ A veteran of 38 seasons in the Division I-A /FBS ranks, Bernardi has coached in 441 games at college football's top level, including 14 bowl games.

■ Has coached numerous All-Americans during his career, while over 20 of his players have gone on to play professionally, including Hall of Famer Jonathan Ogden, as well as Tony Boselli, a member of the 1990s NFL All-Decade Team.

■ Prior to his arrival on The Mesa, Bernardi spent six years as an assistant coach at Colorado, where he tutored the Buffaloes' tight ends and H-backs for the last three seasons after sliding over from the offensive line.

■ In his first two years on the Boulder campus, Colorado's offensive line improved over the course of both seasons, as his five gameday linemen were credited with allowing only 11 quarterback sacks in 545 passing plays during the 2014 campaign (one in every 49.5 plays) after yielding 28 sacks in 999 passing plays the previous year (one in every 36 plays).

■ In 2014, the Buffaloes' running backs averaged over four yards per carry (4.11) for the first time since 2006.

■ One of the veteran offensive line coaches in the nation, with the exception of just three seasons in his career, Bernardi filled that role at San José State for three years (2010-12), helping the Spartans to a victory in the 2012 Military Bowl during his final campaign.

■ Served as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Northern Arizona for the 2004 campaign, his lone season in the FCS ranks, before moving to UNLV for the next five years (2005-09) as the Rebels' offensive line/tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

■ Coached for 10 seasons at UCLA (1994-2003), where he worked with Rocky Long and Ron Caragher. Long was the Bruins' defensive coordinator in 1996 and 1997, while Caragher was a UCLA graduate assistant in 1994-95 before becoming a full-time assistant coach for the next seven years.

■ Broke into the collegiate ranks at Arizona in 1980 under Larry Smith, who hired him to coach the Wildcats' offensive tackles and tight ends. Worked in that capacity on the Tucson campus for the next seven seasons, save for a one-year run as Arizona's wide receivers coach in 1985.

■ Moved to Los Angeles ahead of the 1987 campaign when Smith was hired as head coach at USC. Over the next six seasons (1987-92), Bernardi coached the Trojan tackles and tight ends in addition to handling special teams coordinator duties.

■ Served as head coach at John Burroughs High School in Burbank, Calif., in 1993 between stints at USC and UCLA.

■ Began his coaching career before his 19th birthday in 1973 as an assistant at Bell-Jeff High School in Burbank, Calif. Spent two year there before assisting at his alma mater Monroe High in North Hills, Calif., for one season in 1975. Also served a four-year stint at Fountain Valley High in Orange County from 1976-79, where he mentored future Stanford All-American wide receiver Ken Margerum, who went on to a pro career with the NFL's Chicago Bears.

→ Education

■ Earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal State Northridge in 1976, and received his teaching credential from Southern California College (now Vanguard University).

→ Personal

■ Bernardi and his wife, Leigh, are parents of three grown children, daughters, Marina and Briana, and son, Joe, who is currently the offensive line coach at San José State.

■ His brother, Rob, was the long-time athletic director at Nicholls State University from 2001-16 and now works as an senior associate athletic director for adminstration at Tulane.

■ Bernardi has been active in community service outside of coaching. He was a member of the ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease) Association Los Angeles chapter when he was coaching at UCLA, assisting in its fundraising efforts. On two occasions, he represented the ALS Association in Washington, D.C., meeting with United States senators and congressmen.

■ Kevin McGarry begins his ninth year as a full-time member of the San Diego State football staff, assuming the title of on-campus recruiting coordinator and quality control for the offense this season.

■ Is one of five members of the SDSU staff who has been a collegiate head coach at another school (Rocky Long, Jeff Horton, Ron Caragher, Brady Hoke and McGarry).

■ After serving as special teams coach in 2012 and 2013 following a stint as linebackers coach in 2011, McGarry worked as the Aztecs' director of player personnel from 2014-17.

■ In that role, McGarry handled the day-to-day administrative duties of SDSU's recruiting efforts and contributed to the team's overall talent evaluation.

■ Under his guidance as the Aztecs' special teams coach, punter Joel Alesi was named to the Ray Guy Award watch list in 2013. He also had four student-athletes receive Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Week honors during his stint..

■ In 2011, McGarry coached first-team all-conference linebacker Miles Burris, who led the league in tackles for loss with 19.5, which ranked ninth nationally. Burris also was named to watch lists for the Butkus, Lombardi and Nagurski Awards and was selected in the fourth round the 2012 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

■ Upon his arrival on The Mesa, McGarry served as an assistant to the Aztec coaches from 2009-10.

→ Previous Experience

■ Moved across town after eight campaigns as the head football coach at the University of San Diego from 1996-2003, compiling a 39-37 overall record with five seasons at .500 or above. His squads were also ranked nationally on three occasions.

■ Under McGarry's direction, the Toreros were the No. 1 offense in the nation (Div. I-AA) in 2003, and consistently were rated in the top 20 in various defensive categories.

■ Was named the Pioneer Football League Coach of the Year in 2002, and had eight players garner All-America honors during his tenure.

■ Prior to being named head coach, was USD's defensive coordinator from 1980-95, and was an assistant coach at the school from 1978-80.

→ Playing Experience

■ Began his collegiate career at Saddleback College in Mission Viejo, Calif., where he started at wide receiver and defensive back from 1974-75. He was tabbed the team's MVP his final campaign and was later inducted into Saddleback's Athletic Hall of Fame.

■ Transferred to the University of San Diego, playing on both sides of the ball at wide receiver and defensive back from 1976-77. He picked up team defensive player-of-the-year honors his senior season.

→ Education

■ Has a bachelor's degree in English/diversified liberal arts and a master's in educational administration from the University of San Diego.

→ Personal

HC - head coach, GA - graduate assistant Does not include current coaching staff

BRIAN BILLICK

Years at SDSU: 1981-85

Following a four-year assistant coaching stint at SDSU (1981-85) and successful tenures at Utah State (1986-88) and Stanford (1989-91), Brian Billick moved on to the pro ranks. He became an assistant coach with Minnesota Vikings in 1992 and was promoted to offensive coordinator three games into the 1993 season, a position he held for the duration of his seven-year stay. Billick directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and team records during an NFL-best 15-1 1998 season.

Billick became the Baltimore Ravens head coach in 1999 and quickly changed the course of a team which went 16-31-1 in its previous three years, producing an 8-8 mark in his first season. The Ravens followed that up with a 12-4 regular season mark in 2000 and a sweep through the playoffs to the Super Bowl XXXV championship. Billick finished his tenure with the Ravens in 2007 with a 80-64 record in nine seasons.

JOE GIBBS

Joe Gibbs, one of the most successful coaches in the history of the NFL, got his coaching start at his alma mater, San Diego State, in 1964. He joined the Aztecs' staff as a graduate assistant and coached the offensive line during a period when the team won 27 of 31 games, including an 11-0 mark in 1966.

Following assistant coaching jobs at Florida State, Southern California, Arkansas and three NFL teams, Gibbs was named the head coach of the Washington Redskins, where he created a dynasty. He led the Redskins to four Super Bowls - winning three titles - and accumulated a 124-60 record during regular-season play and an amazing 16-5 post-season record (.789 win percentage) in 12 seasons.

In 1993, he left Washington and the NFL at the pinnacle of his career and established Joe Gibbs Racing, assembling a NASCAR team that would go on to find success similar to what he achieved in the NFL.

Gibbs came back to coach the Redskins from 2004-08, 11 seasons after originally retiring to spend more time with his family and his racing team.

His final head coaching record stands at 154-94, including a 17-7 mark in the playoffs, and a career .621 winning percentage. Gibbs was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1996.

JOHN MADDEN

Years at SDSU: 1964-66

John Madden came to The Mesa as a defensive coordinator in 1964 after coaching Hancock Junior College (Calif.) beginning in 1960. In 1967, he was hired by the Oakland Raiders. Two years later, Madden, at 33 years old, became the youngest head coach in the old American Football League.

Madden, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, led the Raiders to a 10-year overall record of 103-32-7 - the best winning percentage in NFL history. During his tenure, the Raiders won seven division titles, including a Super Bowl XI victory in 1976. He retired after the 1979 season to become a television analyst.

Madden's move to the broadcast booth has been even more historic, as demonstrated by his 16 Emmy nominations. He began work as an NFL analyst for NBC in 2006 until announcing his retirement in 2009.

2018 Season Recap

Fast Start Leads Aztecs To Ninth Straight Bowl Game

San Diego State overcame a rash of injuries that devastated the offensive side of the ball but when the 2019 campaign was finished, the Aztecs posted a school-record ninth straight bowl game appearance, a ninth straight winning season, two victories over nationally ranked teams and a fourth consecutive season with a win streak of at least six games.

The Aztecs raced out to a 6-1 record, with victories over No. 23 Arizona State and at No. 24 Boise State before injuries to the entire starting backfield and members of the offensive line became too much to overcome.

Nonetheless, even in a season with unluck (SDSU lost four games by a total of 17 points) and misfortune, the Aztec Football program continues to operate in rarefy air among the elite teams in college football.

Bowl x 9

San Diego State has advanced to a bowl game following each of the last nine seasons. The Aztecs are one of just 14 programs in the nation that have played in a bowl game in each season since 2010.

The 14 programs are listed below:

Annual Streaks

San Diego State has posted at least a six-game win streak each of the past four seasons. The Aztecs join Alabama, Clemson, Ohio State and Oklahoma as the only teams in the nation to win at least six games in a row in every season since 2015.

Below is a look at the longest active streak of season with at least six straight victories.

ALABAMA
8 (2018-17-16-15-14-13-12-11)

CLEMSON
8 (2018-17-16-15-14-13-12-11)

OHIO STATE
8 (2018-17-16-15-14-13-12-11)

SAN DIEGO STATE
4 (2018-17-16-15)

OKLAHOMA
4 (2018-17-16-15)

All-Conference

San Diego State football sophomore offensive lineman Keith Ismael and junior linebacker Kyahva Tezino were each named first-team all-Mountain West.

The Aztecs had three other players make the second team in senior offensive lineman Ryan Pope, sophomore Warrior (safety) Tariq Thompson and senior kicker John Baron II. Junior running back Juwan Washington, junior tight end Kahale Warring, senior Aztec (safety) Parker Baldwin, senior defensive tackle Noble Hall and junior punter Brandon Heicklen, meanwhile, were honorable mention selections.

The all-conference awards are voted on by the league coaches and various media members from the league.

Team Awards

San Diego State junior linebacker Kyahva Tezino was presented with the John Simcox Memorial Trophy as the Aztecs' 2018 Most Valuable Player at the team's annual banquet.

Tezino also collected the Byron H. Chase Memorial Defensive Player of the Year award after compiling 127 tackles, 14.5 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks and 17 quarterback hurries during the 2018 campaign.

Tezino, whose 127 tackles are the third most by an SDSU player with a junior class standing, led the Aztecs in tackles in seven of the final eight games and 10 times on the season. Additionally, he reached the double-digit plateau in tackles on six occasions, including 15 apiece against Air Force and at Fresno State, landing a spot on the Pro Football Focus Mountain West Team of the Week three times.

Not to be outdone, Tezino shared the Dr. R. Hardy/C.E. Peterson 2018 Captain's Awards with seniors John Baron II, Christian Chapman and Ronley Lakalaka.

Meanwhile, junior quarterback Ryan Agnew was named the Byron H. Chase Offensive Player of the Year after leading San Diego State to a 6-1 record during the regular season in relief of Chapman, who was injured in the second game of the year vs. Sacramento State on Sept. 8.

For the season, Agnew completed 115 of 223 passes for 1,651 yards and 10 touchdowns with sixinterceptions en route to a 123.18 pass efficiency rating.

Elsewhere, Baron garnered Most Valuable Special Teams Player accolades after receiving second-team all-conference recognition from the MW at placekicker.

A Lou Groza Award national semifinalist, Baron connected on 17-of-22 field-goal attempts, including all five from 50 yards and out. In the regular-season finale vs. Hawai'i on Nov. 24, the Temecula, Calif., native drilled a 53-yard field goal, joining UCLA's Kai Forbath (2007) as the only players since at least 1996 to make all five of their field goal attempts from 50-plus yards in the same season. Additionally, Baron led the FBS with three game-winning field goals (last five minutes of 4th quarter or OT which gave team a lead it would never relinquish), tied for the most in a season in the FBS overtime era (since 1996).

Sophomore Keith Ismael was named Offensive Lineman of the Year, while senior Noble Hall took home Defensive Lineman of the Year honors.

A first-team all-Mountain West selection in 2018, Ismael started 12 of the team's 13 games, including six times at center, five times at right guard and once at left guard.

Hall, meanwhile, received all-MW honorable mention after recording 35 tackles, two sacks and two tackles for loss, eight quarterback hurries, two blocked PATs and an interception.

Other honorees from the festivities included senior safety Marc Ellis and junior cornerback Ron Smith, who each merited the President's Award for High Athletic and Academic Achievement, while Baron and Lakalaka were co-recipients of the Most Inspirational Player award.

In addition, the Outstanding Freshman award was shared between running back/kick returner Jordan Byrd and defensive back Darren Hall.

Four student-athletes were presented with Scout Team Player of the Year awards, including Kashan Griffin and Jesse Matthews on offense, Josh Bornes on defense and Andrew Alves on special teams.

Highlights

- San Diego State extended its school-record bowl streak to nine seasons.
- SDSU's active consecutive streak of nine straight bowl games is tied for the 12th-longest streak nationally. San Diego State joins Stanford as the only football teams in the state of California - college or pro - to play in the postseason each of the last nine years.
- SDSU is one of 14 schools and one of two Group of 5 schools in the nation to play in a bowl game following the last nine seasons.
- Head coach Rocky Long, the all-time winningest coach in Mountain West history, has guided San Diego State to a bowl game in each of his first eight seasons as head coach. He is one of only six active coaches to lead their current team to a bowl game in each of the first eight seasons.
- Long is one of five coaches to lead his current team to a bowl game in each of the last eight seasons. That list: Mike Gundy (Oklahoma State), Nick Saban (Alabama), David Shaw (Stanford), Dabo Swinney (Clemson) and Rocky Long (San Diego State).
- San Diego State may be ahead of schedule with the success it enjoyed last season. The Aztecs had just 14 seniors on the 2018 squad and averaged starting just 6.4 seniors.
- The Aztecs had 10 players named to the all-Mountain West team. Of those 10, only four were seniors (DB Parker Baldwin, PK John Baron II, DL Noble Hall, OL Ryan Pope). SDSU placed four juniors (P Brandon Heicklen, LB Kyahva Tezino, RB Juwan Washington, TE Kahale Warring) and two sophomores (OL Keith Ismael, DB Tariq Thompson) on the teams.
- Both Ismael and Tezino were named to the conference's first-team.
- San Diego State played 10 consecutive games decided by single digits. That is the longest consecutive streak by any FBS team since at least 1980 (last 39 seasons).

No. 13/13 Stanford 31
1-0 / 0-0 P12

Aug. 31, 2018 I Stanford Stadium I Stanford, Calif. | FS1

STANFORD, Calif. -- San Diego State kept Heisman Trophy candidate Bryce Love in check, but was unable to stop the K.J. Costello-JJ Arcega-Whiteside connection in a 31-10 loss in the 2018 opener at Stanford Stadium.

Costello threw for 332 yards and four touchdowns, and Arcega-Whiteside caught six passes for 226 yards and three scores to give the Cardinal its 20th consecutive non-conference home win.

The Aztecs, who last year defeated Stanford, 20-17, in San Diego, held Love to just 29 yards on 18 carries (1.6 avg.). Love, who entered the game with 100 rushing yards in 14 of the last 15 games, posted the lowest average of his career with a minimum of five carries.

Committed to stop the run, SDSU held the Cardinal to just 50 yards on the ground on 28 attempts (1.8 avg.), its fewest in a home game since Sept. 29, 2007.

Costello, however, connected on touchdown passes of 38, 19 and 80 yards to Arcega-Whiteside, and later on a 19-yard strike to Colby Parkinson.

After a slow start, San Diego State used a methodical 8-play, 92-yard drive to get on the scoreboard late in the first quarter on a 4-yard run by Juwan Washington. Washington had 84 yards alone on the drive, including a 40-yarder which got the Aztecs into Stanford territory for the first time of the game.

After exchanging punts for the next few series, SDSU was forced to start at its own 1-yard line when Jack Bailey's 63-yard punt went out of bounds. Three plays later, quarterback Christian Chapman was sacked in the end zone for the safety.

Late in the second quarter, it appeared San Diego State would have a chance to add to its 7-2 lead when Andrew Aleki deflected a Costello pass into the hands of Noble Hall. Hall started running the other way, but Cardinal wide receiver Trenton Irwin raced back, forced a fumble and jumped on the loose ball, giving Stanford some life. The Cardinal took advantage in just three plays when Costello found Arcega-Whiteside in the end zone from 38 yards out, taking a 9-7 lead into halftime.

Costello stretched its lead to 16-7 on its first drive of the third quarter as Costello found a wide-open Arcega-Whiteside in the end zone with a 19-yard pass.

The Aztecs mounted a 10-play, 62-yard drive of their own, mainly through the air, culminating with a 30-yard field goal by John Baron II. Chapman was 5 for 7 on the scoring drive for 61 yards.

On Stanford's ensuing drive and facing a punt on third-and-15, Costello rolled out to his left and fired a deep pass to Arcega-Whiteside, who caught it over a fallen Kyree Woods and raced 80 yards for the touchdown.

SDSU got back into Stanford territory, but was stopped on a fourth-and-1 on the 32-yard line as the fourth quarter began.

SDSU Winning Streaks Snapped

- Three-game winning streak against Power 5 schools.

SDSU held Stanford to its lowest rushing yardage in a home game since Sept. 29, 2007.

- Six-game winning streak in road games.
- Five-game winning streak as an "underdog."
- Three-game winning streak against Pac-12 opponents.
- Eight-game winning streak in the month of September.
- Four-game winning streak in season openers. SDSU is now 50-41-5 all-time in season openers, including a 26-24-1 mark in the Division I era (since 1969).

Trends

- The Aztecs had scored in 21 consecutive quarters, the second-longest active streak in FBS (Louisville, 25), before being held scoreless in the second quarter.
- San Diego State lost the coin toss for just the 25th time over the last 54 games.
- SDSU held its opponent scoreless on its opening drive for the 31st time over the last 39 games and for the 32nd time since 2015 (42 games).
- San Diego State dropped to 47-14 in the Rocky Long era when scoring first.

San Diego State 28

Sept. 8, 2018 I SDCCU Stadium I San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO -- Juwan Washington rushed for 156 yards and a career-high three touchdowns, as San Diego State rallied for a 28-14 triumph over Sacramento State before a crowd of 45,755 at SDCCU Stadium.

Washington, who also finished with a personal-best 36 carries, posted two of his scores in the final four minutes and change to help the Aztecs capture their fifth straight home opener and win for the ninth time in their last 10 September games.

SDSU was forced to overcome the loss of starting quarterback Christian Chapman, who completed 6-of-11 passes for 112 yards before leaving with 4:47 left in the second quarter due to a knee injury. Backup Ryan Agnew took over for the rest of the game, recording 159 yards on 11-for-17 passing – all career highs.

Trailing 14-13 at the 9:18 mark of the fourth quarter, Agnew directed the Aztecs on a 13-play, 82-yard scoring drive, punctuated by Washington's 4-yard scamper into the end zone. Moments later, Agnew hit tight end Parker Houston for a 2-point conversion that put the host school up for good 21-14 with 4:05 to go.

The Aztec defense displayed its mettle on the ensuing possession, sacking Sacramento State quarterback Kevin Thomson on two occasions, including one by Kyahva Tezino on a fourth-and-3 situation that gave the ball back to SDSU on the Hornet 25 with 2:57 to go. On the second play after the possession change, Washington hit pay dirt with a 20-yard burst up the middle that put the game out of reach.

Earlier in the first quarter, San Diego State opened the scoring on its second drive of the contest, marching 69 yards in nine plays, with Washington darting in from five yards out to provide the Aztecs a 7-0 edge at the 4:39 mark. Washington uncorked a 30-yard run on a second-and-26 situation to give the Aztecs a first down at the Sacramento State 18.

The Aztecs salvaged another field goal on their next drive, as Chapman exited after two plays. On his first snap of the night, Agnew completed a 13-yard pass to EthonDedeaux and later flashed his mobility with 14-yard scramble down the left sideline on a third-and-6 play. John Baron split the uprights from 32 yards out to give the host a 13-7 cushion.

The Hornets wasted no time cashing in on an Angew interception in the third quarter as Thomson found a wide-open B.J. Perkinson, who streaked past the Aztec defense for a 64-yard touchdown reception on the first play after the interception, giving the visitors their first lead of the night at 14-13 with just under nine minutes remaining in the period.

SDSU, however, responded with the two Washington touchdowns to secure the win.

For the second straight game, SDSU had its run defense clicking, as the Hornets were held to just 53 yards on the ground. Tezino and Kyree Woods led the Aztec charge with seven tackles apiece.

GAME NOTES

Chapman Tops Charts

- Christian Chapman won his 24th career game, the most by a starting quarterback in SDSU's DI history (since 1969), passing Ryan Lindley's 23 victories from 2008-11 (wins count for quarterbacks who start the game).

SDSU had its streak of games with one or less interceptions snapped at 40. It was the longest active streak in FBS (second was 21) and second-longest streak in FBS since '96.

- Rocky Long recorded his school-record 18th second-half comeback victory as coach at SDSU (No. 2 is Claude Gilbert at 13).
- SDSU had a 100-yard rusher in its seventh straight game (eight, 100-yard rushers total), and has one in 24 of its last 29 games since 2016 (31, 100-yard rushers total) and 33 of the 43 games since Jeff Horton took over as the OC in 2015 (43, 100-yard rushers total).
- SDSU improved to 16-3 in its last 19 home games dating back to Oct. 3, 2015. During that stretch, the Aztecs have outscored the opposition, 609-342.
- SDSU won its fifth straight home opener.
- The Aztecs improved to 13-4 in their last 17 games, 19-6 in their last 25 and 32-7 in their last 39.

San Diego State 28
2-1 / 0-0 MW

Sept. 15, 2018 I SDCCU Stadium I San Diego, Calif. | CBSSN

SAN DIEGO -- After turning in a suffocating defensive performance for much of the second half, San Diego State weathered some anxious moments in the waning moments of a 28-21 upset over No. 23/25 Arizona State.

With the win, the Aztecs (2-1) defeated the Sun Devils for the second year in a row, improving to 4-1 against Pac-12 teams since the start of the 2016 season after Parker Baldwin batted down a Hail Mary pass at the goal line.

SDSU shredded the nation's leading defense against the run, rushing for a 311 yards on 58 attempts after ASU entered the contest yielding just an average of 32.5 yards in its previous two games. For the second straight outing, the Aztecs also controlled the ball over 12 minutes longer than the opposition (36:05-23:55) to help key their win.

Juwan Washington recorded a game-high 138 rushing yards on 27 carries with one touchdown, while Chase Jasmin added a career-best 112 yards on 19 attempts to go with one TD of his own, giving SDSU multiple 100-yard ground gainers for the 29th time in program history, as the Scarlet and Black improved to 28-1 all-time in that statistic.

However, it was the Aztec defense that played a pivotal role, seizing the momentum after a critical fourth down stop at the SDSU 11 with 1:41 remaining in the second quarter.

Trailing 14-7 after ASU scored on 1-yard sneak by quarterback Manny Wilkins, the Sun Devils passed up a short field-goal attempt, and Aztec defensive tackle Myles Cheatum made them pay with a 4-yard sack of Wilkins on fourth-and-1.

Buoyed by its good fortune, SDSU methodically marched 85 yards in 11 plays, capped by Ryan Agnew's first career touchdown pass, a 9-yard strike to Tim Wilson Jr. in the right corner of the end zone with just eight ticks left before intermission, which knotted the score.

In the interim, SDSU took the lead for good at 17-14 when John Baron drilled a career-long 54 yard field-goal at the 7:46 mark of the period.

Baron also connected from 36 yards out on SDSU's first foray of the fourth quarter, extending its advantage to 20-14 with 11:34 to go in the game.

After holding the Sun Devils to a three-and-out, the Aztecs looked to put the game out of reach as Jasmin took center stage, rushing 11 times for 76 yards on the team's 13-play drive, punctuated by a 3-yard touchdown. After Agnew hit Kahale Warring in the left corner of the end zone for the 2-point conversion, SDSU was seemingly in control 28-14 with just 4:14 left in contest.

ASU cut the deficit to 28-21 with 1:39 to go. On its next possession, Wilkins appeared to hit Darby with a long throw down to the SDSU 2-yard line with six seconds to go, but a replay review on a Aztec targeting penalty revealed the ball fell incomplete. Then on the final play from the SDSU 35, Baldwin knocked down a Wilkins pass at the goal line.

Agnew In Rare Company

- Ryan Agnew became the first quarterback from a non-Power 5 school to beat a nationally ranked team from a Power 5 school in his starting debut since USF's B.J. Daniels against No. ASU entered the game ranked first in the country in rushing yards allowed per game (32.5), including only one touchdown on 61 attempts (1.1 avg.). SDSU rushed for 311 yards and two touchdowns on 58 carries (5.4 avg.).
- SDSU improved to 4-1 against the Pac-12 since the start of the 2016 season. Included in the four wins are two victories against ranked Pac-12 squads (No. 19/19 Stanford on Sept. 16, 2017 and vs. No. 23/25 ASU).
- SDSU's 311 rushing yards tonight vs. No. 23/25 Arizona State are the most against an AP Top 25 team this season.
- SDSU outrushed Arizona State by 275 yards, its largest margin against a nationally ranked school in its DI history (previous best was 187 vs. No. 13 Florida State on Nov. 19, 1977.
- SDSU had multiple 100-yard rushers (Washington – 138, Jasmin – 112) in the same game for the 29th time. The Aztecs are 28-1 in those games with 18 straight wins.

Eastern Michigan 20
2-2 / 0-1 MAC — OVERTIME

San Diego State 23
3-1 / 0-0 MW

Sept. 22, 2018 I SDCCU Stadium I San Diego, Calif. | CBSSN

SAN DIEGO -- John Baron kicked three field goals, including a 38-yarder in overtime, to lift San Diego State to a 23-20 victory over visiting Eastern Michigan at SDCCU Stadium.

With just 1:16 remaining in the fourth quarter, Baron tied the game at 20-20 on a 50-yarder before nailing the game-winner in the extra session, helping the Aztecs complete an unbeaten three-game homestand and improve to 3-1 on the year.

The Eagles won the overtime coin toss, but came up empty on the their only offensive possession, as defensive back Darren Hall intercepted a pass from quarterback Mike Glass at the SDSU 2. The Aztecs subsequently gained four yards on their next three plays to set up Baron's decisive kick.

San Diego State threatened the turn the game into a blowout after taking a 17-3 lead in the second quarter on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Agnew to BJ Busbee with 9:03 remaining in the period. Juwan Washington put the Aztecs in striking range with a 36-yard scamper down the left sideline on a third-and-2 situation before Agnew connected with a wide-open Busbee three plays later.

However, EMU capitalized on an errant Agnew pass late in the quarter, thanks to an interception by Kevin McGill, who returned the ball 26 yards to the SDSU 34 with just 1:40 left before halftime. Glass entered the game in relief of starter Tyler Wiegers and quickly provided a spark for the Eagles, hitting Line Latu for 27 yards before plowing into the end zone on a sneak from two yards out on the next play, narrowing the gap to 17-10 by intermission.

With momentum on its side, EMU took the second half kickoff and marched 75 yards in 12 plays for the tying score. Arthur Jackson got behind the SDSU secondary and hauled in a 37-yard touchdown pass from Glass, knotting the game at 17-17.

EMU took the lead when Chad Ryland hit a 24-yard field goal with 3:18 remaining.

After a short kickoff, the Aztecs took over at their own 42 and quickly advanced into Eagle territory, benefiting on a 15-yard pass interference penalty following an 11-yard pass completion to Ethan Dedeaux. On second-and-10 from the EMU 32, Agnew scrambled to the right and appeared to hit tight end Kahale Warring for a first down near the 10-yard line, but officials ruled the junior signal-caller stepped out of bounds before the throw, and SDSU could not convert on the subsequent play.

With just 1:16 left on the clock, Baron was summoned for the game-tying field goal attempt from 50 yards and the Aztec senior calmly delivered his third straight success from that distance or more this season.

In his second career start, Agnew completed 12-of-22 passes for a career-high 176 yards and a personal-best two touchdowns, including a 25-yard strike to Parker Houston.

BOISE, Idaho -- San Diego State used a dominating defense and a late touchdown run by true freshman Jordan Byrd to down Boise State, 19-13, in its Mountain West opener.

The Aztecs sacked Bronco quarterback Brett Rypien four times and recorded three interceptions (two vs. Rypien), handing Boise just its eighth loss at home since 2000.

SDSU held a Boise State team, which came into the day averaging 538.50 yards per game, to just 229 yards of total offense.

San Diego State limited Rypien, the Mountain West Preseason Player of the Year, to 170 yards passing, completing 21 of 41 attempts with no touchdowns and two interceptions.

The Aztecs got on the scoreboard early in the first quarter when cornerback Darren Hall picked off Rypien on the Boise 33-yard line and ran it to the 24. Unable to get a first down, SDSU settled for a 36-yard field goal by John Baron.

San Diego State forced a three-and-out on Boise State's ensuing drive, but Ethan Dedeaux muffed a Quinn Skillin punt and the Broncos recovered it on the Aztec 4-yard line. Three plays later Alex Mattison punched it in from 1-yard out to put the Broncos on top, 7-3.

Late in the first quarter, SDSU Warrior (safety) Tariq Thompson made a one-handed interception on a Rypien throw to give the ball back to San Diego State. The Aztecs got into Boise State territory, but BJ Busbee fumbled away the ball at the Boise State 14 after a catch from Ryan Agnew.

After another three-and-out forced by SDSU, the Bronco punter Skillin dropped the snap, giving the visitors the ball on the 31-yard line. San Diego State got to the 4 on a 24-yard pass from Agnew to Kahale Warring and 3-yard gain by Chase Jasmin, but a pair of penalties, an incomplete pass and a sack pushed the Aztecs out of the red zone. SDSU had to once again settle for a 41-yard field goal by Baron.

SDSU recorded its third interception of the game midway through the second quarter when Kyhava Tezino pressured Chase Cord into throwing an interception to linebacker Ronley Lakalaka. This time, the Aztecs got into the end zone thanks to a pass interference penalty and a 2-yard TD run by Jasmin, making it 13-7.

On San Diego State's first drive of the fourth quarter, Byrd took a pitch on third-and-2 down the sidelines 72 yards for his first career touchdown. The score came on just his fourth career carry. After failing to convert the 2-point conversion, the Aztecs held a 19-7 lead.

The Broncos made it interesting after putting together an 11-play, 73-yard drive, culminating in Mattison's second 1-yard touchdown run of the game. After missing the PAT, BS found itself down, 19-13.

Boise State forced a SDSU punt, but after an 8-yard reception by CT Thomas, Rypien took an intentional grounding penalty. Two incompletions later, San Diego State was in victory formation, holding onto the 19-13 win.

Long On Top

- Rocky Long is the only active coach in the country who has defeated Boise State in Boise twice. The only coaches to do it once are Bob Davie (New Mexico), Gary Patterson (TCU), Troy Calhoun (Air Force) and Bronco Mendenhall (Virginia).

San Diego State held Boise State to 229 total yards. That is its lowest output since gaining 206 yards against 13th-ranked Michigan State on Aug. 31, 2012. It is its lowest offensive output in a home game since Oct. 24, 1998 vs. Utah State (203 yards).

- Since 2000, Boise State is 109-8 at home. The Aztecs are 2-1 during that stretch while the rest of the country is 6-108.
- San Diego State handed Boise State just its second loss in its last 15 home games (Virginia).
- The 13 points are the fewest scored by the Broncos in a home game since Sept. 20, 2012, when Boise State scored seven points in a 7-6 win against Brigham Young. The last time they were held to 13 or fewer points, regardless of location, was on Dec. 27, 2016 against Baylor (31-12).
- Boise State's passing efficiency rating of 70.34 was its fifth lowest since 1996.

Oct. 12, 2018 I SDCCU Stadium I San Diego, Calif. I CBSSN

SAN DIEGO -- Ryan Agnew threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Parker Houston with 6:10 left in the game, as resilient San Diego State rallied for a gritty 21-17 triumph over Air Force on a rainy Friday night at SDCCU Stadium that featured a 67-minute delay due to lightning from passing thunderstorms.

With the victory, the Aztecs completed their 20th second-half comeback under head coach Rocky Long and improved to 24-4 in their last 28 Mountain West encounters.

Despite limiting SDSU to a season-low 84 yards rushing, Air Force was unable to contain the heroics of Agnew, who converted two critical third downs on the Aztecs' go-ahead drive.

Pinned inside his own 10 with under 10 minutes to go in the fourth quarter, Agnew scrambled 32 yards down the left sideline on a third-and-9 situation to help the Scarlet and Black dig itself out of a deep hole. Facing a third-and-5 from the SDSU 44 three plays later, the junior signal-caller found himself under intense pressure once again, but still managed to escape disaster with a rollout to the right, before somehow threading a pass to a diving Kobe Smith down to the Air Force 24.

After the Aztecs lost five yards on a sweep, Agnew quickly regrouped on the next snap, connecting with a wide-open Houston over the middle, as the junior tight end left several Falcon tacklers in his wake en route to the end zone.

After forcing a punt on Air Force's ensuing possession, Parker Baldwin extinguished the visitors' final threat minutes later with an interception at the SDSU 45 with 3:10 remaining.

Despite completing just 9-of-25 attempts with one interception, Agnew finished with a career-high 213 passing yards, improving to 4-0 as the Aztecs' starting quarterback.

The Aztecs' stellar defensive effort was anchored by Kyahva Tezino, who led all players with a season-high 15 tackles, including 11 solo stops, while Baldwin finished with nine tackles of his own.

Air Force put together its longest foray of the night, marching 80 yards in nine plays, punctuated by Ronald Cleveland's 12-yard sprint around left end that put the visitors up 9-7 with 5:13 left in the second quarter.

Unfazed, the Aztecs caught a huge break shortly thereafter when Kaelin Himphill crashed through and blocked Charlie Scott's punt. Trenton Thompson corralled the loose ball at the 19-yard line and bulldozed his way over the goal line, dragging would-be tackler Ross Connors the final seven yards to give the SDSU an improbable 14-9 edge at halftime.

Following the aforementioned weather delay, the game remained scoreless until the 9:25 mark of the fourth quarter when Cleveland took a pitch and cut left through the SDSU line for a four-yard touchdown burst, capping a 7-play, 40-yard drive. Cleveland also made a diving catch just inside the near-right pylon on the subsequent two-point conversion attempt, which propelled Air Force back into the lead at 17-14.

GAME NOTES

Streaks Extended

- San Diego State won its fifth consecutive game overall, tied for the 10th-longest active streak nationally.
- The Aztecs won their sixth straight Mountain West game, tied for the sixth-longest active win streak in conference games.

SDSU's +149-yard margin in passing yards is its largest since a +206-yard margin vs. UNLV on Oct. 8, '16.

- San Diego State won its sixth straight home game.
- SDSU won its fifth straight game when playing a team exactly six days after another game (9-1 in last 10 games).
- The Aztecs claimed their eighth straight victory over Air Force, which is longest active win streak in the nation against the Falcons and longest win streak against AFA since Notre Dame won eight straight from 1986-95.
- SDSU won its 11th straight Friday home game (last home Friday loss was Nov. 20, 1970 against Long Beach State).

Team Notes

- Kaelin Himphill blocked a punt in the second quarter, SDSU's first since Kameron Kelly blocked one against UNLV on Sept. 27, 2014.

Oct. 20, 2018 I SDCCU Stadium I San Diego, Calif. | ESPNU

SAN DIEGO -- John Baron kicked three field goals, including the eventual game-winner from 51 yards out with 4:36 left, as San Diego State held on for a 16-13 triumph over pesky San José State on Homecoming Night at SDCCU Stadium.

With the victory, the Aztecs escaped with their sixth win in a row, which is tied for the seventh-longest streak in FBS play, while becoming bowl eligible for the ninth straight season.

Baron's clutch kick was set up by safety Tariq Thompson, who intercepted Josh Love's high-arching pass at the SDSU 9 and returned it 41 yards before a personal foul penalty on the subsequent tackle put the Aztecs in business at the Spartans' 35-yard line.

However, a false start penalty and a 5-yard loss on a screen pass put SDSU's good fortune in serious jeopardy until Baron salvaged three points with his end-over-end attempt that skipped just over the crossbar, keeping him a perfect 4 for 4 on field goal attempts over 50 yards this season.

The Spartans reached the Aztec 36 on the ensuing drive, but Anthony Luke and Chibe Onyeukwu combined to stuff running back Malike Roberson's run on fourth and 2 with 1:45 remaining. SJSU got the ball once again following a punt, but could not advance past its own 20 before time ran out.

San Diego State maintained a 207-62 advantage in rushing yardage, with redshirt freshman Chance Bell gaining a team-high 81 yards on 15 carries in his first collegiate appearance, while Chase Jasmin added 79 yards and one touchdown on 19 attempts. As a result, the Aztecs are now 41-1 in the last 42 games they have rushed for at least 200 yards.

SDSU spotted the Spartans a 6-0 lead as Bryce Crawford kicked field goals of 42 and 24 yards within the first nine minutes of the first quarter. San José State's second score was set up by Jesse Osuna's recovery of a Kaegun Williams fumble at the Aztec 35-yard line. The visitors drove to the SDSU 1, but Kyahva Tezino and Troy Cassidy came up huge, nailing Tyler Nevens for a one-yard loss on third down.

The Aztecs responded with a 17-play, 75-yard march that consumed 8:20 on the clock, punctuated by Jasmin's 1-yard burst that gave the hosts a slim 7-6 lead with 13:11 left in the second quarter.

Late in the second quarter, the Aztecs engineered another lengthy advance, rumbling 74 yards in 13 plays before Baron drilled a 36-yard field goal late in the half.

SDSU extended the margin to 13-6 on its first drive of the second half on Baron's second field goal of the night, a chip shot from 22 yards out with 7:09 to go in the third quarter. Jasmin helped get the Aztecs within striking distance, thanks to runs of 23 and 22 yards, the latter of which gave SDSU a first-and-goal at the 3-yard line. However, the SJSU defense stymied two straight runs, while an Agnew pass to Warring fell incomplete in the left corner of the end zone.

GAME NOTES

Bowling Again

- San Diego State is bowl eligible for a ninth consecutive season. The Aztecs have played in a bowl game in a school-record eight straight years.

San Diego State is now 41-1 the last 42 times it has rushed for at least 200 yards and is 39-0 in its last 39 regular-season games

- SDSU has at least a six-game winning streak in each of the last four seasons (2015-18). Only the Aztecs, Alabama, Clemson and Ohio State have recorded at least a six-game winning streak in every season since 2015.
- The Aztecs defeated San José State for the sixth consecutive time.
- This marked Rocky Long's 100th game as the head coach at San Diego State. He is 70-30 (.700) since taking over the program in 2011 and amazingly 45-13 (.776) in conference.
- SDSU trailed, 3-0, to the Spartans 6:04 into the game, marking the first time the Aztecs trailed the Spartans since there was 3:32 left in the 2013 game. SDSU had led the Spartans for the previous 249 minutes, 36 seconds (249:36) of game time.

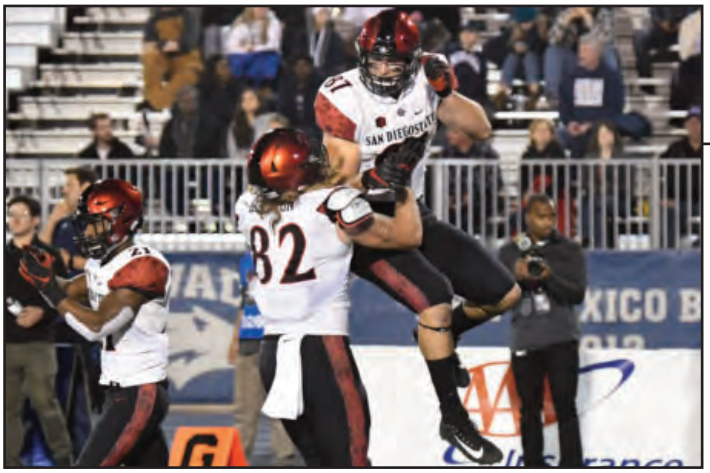
Oct. 27, 2018 I Mackay Stadium I Reno, Nevada | ESPNU



RENO, Nev. -- San Diego State saw its six-game winning streak snapped in a 28-24 loss inside Mackay Stadium.

The Aztecs jumped out to a 24-15 lead at the half, but the Wolf Pack scored all 13 points in the second half in the upset win.

SDSU went up by 14 early thanks to a pair of touchdown passes by Ryan Agnew. Agnew drove the Aztecs 75 yards on 12 plays on the first drive of the game, culminating with a 2-yard touchdown pass to Chase Jasmin just 5 minutes, 44 seconds into the game.

After forcing a three-and-out, SDSU scored a touchdown when Agnew to Kahale Warring with a 16-yard pass.

Nevada, however, scored 15 straight points, beginning with a safety after San Diego State left guard Daishawn Dixon was whistled for a holding penalty in the end zone.

After a kickoff out-of-bounds, the Wolf Pack started on the 50 and answered when Ty Gangi connected with a short pass to Toa Taua on a second-and-25 play. Taua tiptoed down the sidelines and raced into the end zone to close SDSU's lead to 14-9 after the first.

Nevada took its first lead of the game midway through the second quarter as Gangi's 26-yard strike to Brendan O'Leary-Orange capped a 6-play, 53-yard drive.

After a missed PAT by Ramiz Ahmed, San Diego State grabbed the lead back on an 11-play, 73-yard drive that used up 4:27 of the clock, finishing with a 26-yard chip shot field goal by John Baron.

The Aztecs went 63 yards on just three plays and a penalty. Starting on their own 37-yard line, Agnew found Chance Bell on a 14-yard pass, followed by a 4-yard run by Bell. After a pass interference penalty while defending Kobe Smith, Agnew found Warring with a 30-yard touchdown pass.

Nevada returned a SDSU punt 31 yards to get all the way to the Wolf Pack 36. The San Diego State defense was able to hold Nevada out of the end zone, but Ahmed's 32-yard field goal put the Wolf Pack back on top at 25-24.

Early in the fourth quarter, Nevada was forced to punt after another stop by the Aztec defense. However, SDSU's Jordan Byrd misplayed the ball and Jomon Dotson jumped on it at the San Diego State 17. The Aztecs limited the Pack to another field goal by Ahmed, this time from 34 yards to make it 28-24, Nevada.

SDSU got into Wolf Pack territory on each of its final three drives of the game, but came up empty, including a Hail Mary that was knocked down near the end zone as time expired.

NINE STRAIGHT BOWL GAME APPEARANCES ▶ 21 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

San Diego State 31

New Mexico 23
3-6 / 1-4 MW

Nov. 3, 2018 I Dreamstyle Stadium I Albuquerque, N.M.| ESPNU

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. -- Backed by the return of its starting quarterback, running back and fullback, San Diego State rallied from a 9-point fourth quarter deficit by scoring the final 17 points of the game in a 31-23 win over New Mexico inside Dreamstyle Stadium.

With the win, San Diego State clinched a winning season for the ninth straight year, which is the second-longest streak in program history and the longest since a 17-year stretch from 1961-77.

Down, 23-14, after a 4-yard touchdown pass from Coltin Gerhart to Delane Hart-Johnson with 10:07 left, quarterback Christian Chapman led the Aztecs on a 75-yard drive, culminating with a 19-yard touchdown pass to Kahale Warring. On the drive, Chapman was 4 for 4 for 75 yards.

After the SDSU defense forced a three-and-out, Garrett Binkley put San Diego State in good field position when he returned a punt 34 yards to the Lobo 41-yard line. UNM was then called for its first penalty, roughing the passer, with 5:25 left, pushing the Aztecs to the New Mexico 30. Three plays later, John Baron II hit the go-ahead 32-yard field goal.

SDSU cornerback Luq Barcoo then picked off Gerhart on the first play of the ensuing drive, setting up a 50-yard touchdown run by Juwan Washington to put the game away.

Chapman, Washington and fullback Isaac Lessard played in the same game for the first time since Sept. 8 against Sacramento State. Chapman, who had missed the last six games with a knee injury, was 13 for 19 for 182 yards and a touchdown without throwing an interception. Washington, meanwhile, rushed for 95 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries (8.6 avg.) in his first game since being injured against Eastern Michigan on Sept. 22.

After exchanging punts for most of the second quarter, Washington fumbled with just over four minutes left in the half and the Lobos took the 10-7 lead on an Andrew Shelley 41-yard field goal.

UNM finished the first half with two complete passes, both of which went for negative yards, and didn't get into the positive yardage column until late in the third quarter. New Mexico finished with 41 yards passing total in the game.

Warring had a game-high five catches for 61 yards and a touchdown.

The Aztecs defense was stifling as always, recording six sacks and 10 tackles for loss, each the most since recording seven sacks and 11 tackles for loss against Houston in the 2016 Las Vegas Bowl. SDSU allowed just 142 total yards of offense vs. the Lobos, their fewest since gaining 127 at Texas Tech in 2012 and fewest in a home game since recording 130 vs. No. 4 TCU in 2010.

GAME NOTES

Comeback Kids

- SDSU overcame a 9-point fourth-quarter deficit to win, its largest in the final period since overcoming an 11-point deficit at SJSU on Nov. 9, 2013.
- SDSU head coach Rocky Long has now been on the winning sideline of this game each of the last 15 times (five as the SDSU head coach, two as the SDSU defensive coordinator and eight as the UNM head coach).

The Aztecs held New Mexico to just 142 yards of total offense, the fourth fewest allowed by SDSU in the Rocky Long defensive coordinator

- SDSU clinched a winning season for the ninth straight year, which is the second-longest streak in program history and the longest since a 17-year stretch from 1961-77.
- The Aztecs' projected starting backfield coming into the season - QB Christian Chapman, RB Juwan Washington and FB Isaac Lessard - played together for the first time since the team's second game of the season against Sacramento State on Sept. 8.
- The Aztecs won their fourth game of the season when trailing in the fourth quarter.

Nov. 10, 2018 I SDCCU Stadium I San Diego, Calif. | ESPN2

SAN DIEGO -- UNLV running back Lexington Thomas scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 75-yard run with 3:27 left to give the visiting Rebels a 27-24 comeback victory over San Diego State at SDCCU Stadium.

With the loss, the Aztecs saw their seven-game home winning streak dating back to last year snapped, as UNLV won for the first time in San Diego since 2000, a span of nine games.

For the eighth consecutive week, the Aztecs found themselves in a game decided by eight or less points and appeared to be in control after Tim Wilson Jr. hauled in a 34-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Agnew on the final play of the third quarter that gave the host school a 24-13 advantage.

However, the Rebels responded with an 11-play, 75-yard march, culminating in Max Gilliam's 10-yard scoring strike to Brandon Presley at the 9:19 mark of the fourth quarter, which narrowed the gap to 24-19.

Looking to answer the Rebels' touchdown, SDSU had a first down at the UNLV 44, but gained just two yards on the next three plays before Brandon Heicklen's punt pinned the visitors at their own 8-yard line.

Four plays later, Thomas broke free down the right sideline before cutting across the field through the Aztec secondary on his decisive run to the end zone. Moments later, Gilliam hit Presley for a 2-point conversion to put the Rebels in front to stay 27-24.

Unfazed, SDSU advanced to near midfield with 1:23 left to play, but on second-and-10, Jericho Flowers intercepted an Agnew pass at the UNLV 34, effectively ending the Aztecs' comeback hopes. Forced to burn its final two timeouts of the half, San Diego State got the ball back following a punt, but its final play with six seconds remaining went awry.

On a night when the running game was largely held in check, Wilson gave the Scarlet and Black a boost, posting career-highs of five receptions for 123 yards and two touchdowns. With his performance, Wilson became the Aztecs' first 100-yard receiver since Fred Trevillion accomplished the feat against Boise State on Oct. 14, 2017.

For the second game in a row, the Aztecs rotated two quarterbacks, as Chapman completed 8-of-10 passes with one touchdown and one interception before giving way to Agnew on SDSU's second series of the second quarter. Agnew threw for 173 yards on 14-of-26 passing with one touchdown and one interception.

As team, the Aztecs were outgained 436-368, including a 199-89 spread in rushing..

For the fifth consecutive game, Kyahva Tezino led San Diego State in tackles, posting 14 stops on Saturday, which gave him five games with double-digit tackles this season and seven in his career.

GAME NOTES

Streaks Snapped

- 7-game home win streak. Entering the game today, SDSU's seven-game home winning streak was tied for the 12th-longest active streak in FBS play.
- 4-game win streak against UNLV.
- 8-game home win streak against UNLV.

Team Notes

- SDSU fell to 67-17 in the Rocky Long era when scoring just 20 or more points.
- The Aztecs' projected starting backfield coming into the season - QB Christian Chapman, RB Juwan Washington and FB Isaac Lessard - each started together for the first time since the team's second game against Sacramento State on Sept. 8.
- SDSU played in its eighth straight game decided by one score (eight points or less), which is the longest active FBS streak.

San Diego State allowed UNLV to convert a third-and-20 situation, the longest allowed by SDSU all season.

- SDSU recovered just its second fumble all season in the third quarter.

Fresno State 23
9-2 / 6-1 MW

Nov. 17, 2018 I Bulldog Stadium I Fresno, Calif. | CBSSN

FRESNO, Calif. -- San Diego State saw its quest for a 22nd conference title fall short in a 23-14 loss at Fresno State Saturday night at Bulldog Stadium.

The Bulldogs clinched the Mountain West, West Division title with the victory by outscoring the Aztecs, 13-0, in the second half.

SDSU had taken a 14-10 lead at the half after a pair of long TD catches by Fred Trevillion.

Fresno State, however, took its first drive of the second half 75 yards on eight plays over 4 minutes, 10 seconds, culminating with a 2-yard rushing touchdown by Ronnie Rivers to take a 17-14 lead.

Later in the third quarter San Diego State got deep into Bulldog territory, but the drive stalled when John Baron II's 47-yard field goal missed wide left. It was just the ninth miss of Baron's career (49-for-58).

Fresno responded with a 10-play, 70-yard drive over the end of the third quarter and the beginning of the fourth, punctuated by a 1-yard rushing score by Jordan Mims. The PAT, however, was blocked by a game Noble Hall, making the score 23-14. It was the second blocked PAT for Hall in three weeks.

After forcing a third-and-out, Fresno State got into Aztec territory, but Asa Fuller was unable to convert a 40-yard field goal, keeping SDSU in the game.

With just 5:51 left in the game, SDSU could not put together a sustained drive as backup quarterback Ryan Agnew was sacked on a fourth-and-9 situation from its own 38.

The Bulldogs got the one first down they needed to end the game, and advance to their second straight MW Championship and third since the two-division split in 2013.

Like earlier in the game when Chapman found Trevillion for a 75-yard touchdown strike, SDSU used the big play once again to take its only lead of the game. On the first play after the Fuller field goal, Agnew found a streaking Trevillion for a 70-yard touchdown pass. It was the longest pass play of Agnew's career.

SDSU would go into the half with the 14-10 advantage, but was outscored 13-0 the rest of the way.

The Aztecs, who had 225 yards in the first half, managed only 57 in the second half against a stifling Fresno State defense.

For the game, Trevillion set career highs with four catches for 189 yards and two touchdowns. The 189 receiving yards were the most in the Jeff Horton offensive coordinator era (since 2015), the most by an Aztec receiver since DeMarco Sampson had 257 at Colorado State on Oct. 24, 2009 and the 30th most in a game in school history.

The 1-2 punch of Kyahva Tezino (15 tackles, 1 sack, 1 TFL, 1 PBU) and Parker Baldwin (14 tackles) combined for 29 tackles to lead the SDSU defense.

GAME NOTES

Trends

- SDSU started with the ball for the 82nd time in the last 95 games.
- The Aztecs have now gone 154 games without suffering a shutout (Nov. 18, 2006 at TCU), which is the second-longest streak among current Mountain West schools (Boise State at 276).
- SDSU allowed its opponent to score on its opening drive for just the 13th time since 2015 (52 games).

The Aztecs held Fresno State to 390 yards of total offense. That is the lowest total for the Bulldogs in a home game since Nov. 4, 2017 (Brigham Young).

- San Diego State dropped to 8-2 the last 10 times it was tied at the end of the first quarter.
- San Diego State scored a touchdown in the second quarter, making it 14 out of the last 16 second quarters that SDSU has scored a touchdown.
- The Aztecs fell to 5-3 this season and 50-12 in the Rocky Long era when leading at the half. SDSU has won 14 of its last 17 games when leading at the half.

Hawai'i 31
8-5 / 5-3 MW — OVERTIME

San Diego State 30
7-5 / 4-4 MW

Nov. 24, 2018 I SDCCU Stadium I San Diego, Calif. | ESPNU

SAN DIEGO -- San Diego State dropped its regular-season finale in heartbreaking fashion, suffering a 31-30 defeat to Hawai'i in overtime at SDCCU Stadium.

With the setback, the Aztecs lost their third straight and saw their six-game winning streak vs. the Rainbow Warriors come to a halt.

SDSU found itself trailing 31-24 after Hawai'i scored the first touchdown in the extra session on a 10-yard pass from Cole McDonald to JoJo Ward; however, the Aztecs quickly answered on the first play of their ensuing possession when Juwan Washington burst threw a swarm of would-be tacklers on a 25-yard dash into the end zone.

With momentum on its side, San Diego State went for the 2-point conversion to try and escape with the victory, but Ryan Agnew's pass to Kahale Warring sailed high and incomplete.

Earlier, the Aztecs had a chance to win in regulation, but John Baron's 32-yard field goal attempt with three seconds left on the clock curled wide right. SDSU marched 65 yards in 10 plays to set up the potential game-winning kick, with Washington gaining 29 of those yards on six carries. Agnew, who relieved starter Christian Chapman on the second drive of the fourth quarter, also came through in the clutch with a key 15-yard scramble on a third-and-1 play.

Washington matched his season-high with 158 yards on 31 carries for two touchdowns, helping the Aztecs outgain the Rainbow Warriors on the ground, 224-64.

Despite allowing 452 passing yards, SDSU erased a 24-14 halftime deficit by keeping Hawai'i off the scoreboard in the third and fourth quarters.

The Aztecs trimmed the deficit to 24-17 on their first series of the second half when Baron connected on a 53-yard field goal with 10:29 remaining in the third quarter. The Scarlet and Black rode the arm of Chapman, as the senior signal-caller completed an 11-yard pass to Warring followed by a 10-yard strike to Tim Wilson Jr. shortly thereafter.

The Aztecs embarked on a 10-play, 68-yard march, capped by a 13-yard touchdown pass from Agnew to Isaac Lessard on a fourth-and-1 situation, which knotted the score at 24-24 with 6:07 left in the fourth quarter. Washington helped key the drive with a 20-yard jaunt down the left sideline after Agnew rolled out for 14 yards himself on the previous play.

Defensively, the Aztecs were led by Kyahva Tezino and Parker Baldwin, who finished with seven solo tackles apiece, while Noble Hall had six stops (five solo) of his own.

Senior Notes

- Fourteen seniors suited up for the final time tonight. The senior class has amassed a 46-20 record (.697) over the last four-plus seasons (some of the seniors arrived in 2014) and a 39-14 (.736) record over the last four years (since 2015).

San Diego State had its 25-game winning streak snapped when owning a turnover advantage (SDSU was +2 tonight). The 25-game winning streak was the longest in FBS play entering tonight. The Aztecs are now 45-5 in the Rocky Long era when having fewer turnovers than their opponent.

- The Aztecs won two Mountain West championships since 2015, won or shared three West Division titles since 2014, played in four bowl games since 2014 (SDSU has played in a bowl game every year since 2010).
- SDSU fell to 7-2 in its last nine Senior Night games since 2010.

Team Notes

- San Diego State played its 10th consecutive game decided by single digits (the Aztecs are 6-4 in those games).
- SDSU had its 21-game winning streak snapped when having an advantage in turnovers and average in field position.

2018 Game Recaps

San Diego State	7-6 / 4-4 MW	0
Ohio	9-4 / 6-2 MAC	27

Dec. 19, 2018 I Toyota Stadium I Frisco, Texas | ESPN

FRISCO, Texas -- What looked as if it might go down as one of the great seasons in SDSU program history at the midway point of the season came to an end with a 27-0 defeat to Ohio in the DXL Frisco Bowl.

Despite a string of devastating injuries on the offensive side of the ball that resulted in a disappointing second half to the campaign, the Aztecs still finished the 2018 campaign with a winning record, a ninth consecutive season with a bowl appearance and two victories over top 25 teams.

The Bobcats used a bruising ground game, rushing for 215 yards on 40 carries to dominate possession time (18:07 in the first half alone) and took advantage of scoring opportunities, going 4 for 4 in the red zone (20 points) while San Diego State was 0 for 3 inside the 20 (no points).

Ohio was able to continue drives even when the Aztecs had appeared to have them stopped. The Bobcats converted on 8-of-13 third or fourth down conversions in the game.

After holding the Aztecs scoreless on a 9-play drive to open the game, Ohio marched 66 yards on a 12 plays, that consumed 6:56 to get on the scoreboard on a 30-yard field goal from Louie Zervos.

Following an SDSU punt, Ohio found the end zone following a 72-yard drive. The touchdown drive, in which the Bobcats converted three third downs and a fourth down, was capped by a 9-yard rush by Nathan Rourke to give Ohio a 10-0 lead.

Late in the second quarter, San Diego State got the ball back on its own 20 with 2:08 remaining. The Aztecs picked up one first down but was forced to punt and when Nelson returned a punt 30 yards to the SDSU 43 with 61 seconds remaining, Ohio was back in business.

The Bobcats finished the 43-yard drive for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead at intermission when Rourke scored from 11 yards out.

Ohio received the opening kickoff and tacked on a field goal to go up 20-0. The Aztecs had three second-half drives that ended inside the Ohio 20-yard line without points. On those three possessions, SDSU had two turnovers along with failure to convert on fourth down.

Offensively, the Aztecs were led by junior Juwan Washington, who carried 19 times for 129 yards and a 6.8 yard per rush average. The 6.8 yard average marked Washington's highest single-game average for any game with at least 17 carries.

Redshirt freshman Isaiah Richardson, playing in his first collegiate game, led the Aztecs with three receptions for 58 yards.

Defensively, senior Parker Baldwin paced the Aztecs with nine tackles, including five solo stops, and added a second quarter interception. Sophomore Tariq Thompson and junior Kyahva Tezino added sevan tackles apiece.

GAME NOTES

Bowl Notes

- San Diego State played in its ninth consecutive bowl, tied for the 12th-longest streak in the country.
- The Aztecs are one of 14 schools and one of two from a Group of 5 program to play in at least nine straight bowl games.
- Head coach Rocky Long has guided SDSU to a bowl game in each of his first eight seasons, making him one of only six active coaches to lead their current team to a bowl game in each of his first eight campaigns.

Ohio was the only team not to have a penalty assessed during bowl season. For the entire 2018 campaign, there were only 14 times an FBS team did not commit a penalty.

Game Notes

- Washington broke 100 yards rushing for the second straight game, fifth time this season and seventh time of his career.
- SDSU was shut out for the first time in a game since Nov. 18, 2006 at TCU (L, 0-52). San Diego State had gone 155 games without being shut out prior to tonight.
- The Aztecs lost their first game against a team from the Mid-American Conference (MAC) and are now 13-1-1 all-time against current teams from the MAC.

HARDIN-SIMMONS 53, SAN DIEGO STATE 0

Jan. 1, 1948 ▶ Balboa Stadium ▶ Att: 12,000

SAN DIEGO -- Hardin-Simmons blanked San Diego State, 53-0, before 12,000 in the 1948 Harbor Bowl at Balboa Stadium.

The loss snapped the Aztecs' five-game unbeaten streak, as the Cowboys controlled the ball for the majority of the game, outgaining SDSU, 470-66, on the ground.

San Diego State still finished its bowl season with a 7-3-1 record.

■ 1952 Pineapple Bowl

SAN DIEGO STATE 34, HAWAI'I 13

Jan. 1, 1952 ▶ Honolulu Stadium ▶ Att: N/A

HONOLULU -- Despite the heat and humidity that slowed down a potent San Diego State offense in the first half of the 1952 Pineapple Bowl, the Aztecs pulled away in the second half to take a 34-13 victory over Hawai'i.

After a 14-6 SDSU lead at the half, the Aztecs took advantage of cooler temperatures in the second half with three quick touchdowns by Art Preston, Preston Robinson and Don Jurk.

It would be all the offense they would need as the SDSU defense stopped UH's running back Jimmy Asato and their dangerous single-wing attack.

Most of the Aztecs suffered from a bout of food poisoning following the game, but recovered in time for the flight back to the mainland.

■ 1966 Camellia Bowl

SAN DIEGO STATE 28, MONTANA STATE 7

Dec. 10, 1966 ▶ Hughes Stadium ▶ Att: 15,740

SACRAMENTO, Calif. -- Don Horn completed 23-of-38 passes for 343 yards and four touchdowns to lead San Diego State to a 28-7 win over Montana State in the 1966 Camellia Bowl.

Horn had touchdown passes of 22, 50, 32 and 12 yards.

Tom Nettles led the Aztecs with eight catches for 95 yards and a TD. Craig Scoggins had five receptions for 99 yards and Haven Moses caught five passes for 56 yards and two scores. Robert Jones had the other TD for SDSU on a 50-yard reception.

■ 1967 Camellia Bowl

SDSU 27, SAN FRANCISCO STATE 6

Dec. 9, 1967 ▶ Hughes Stadium ▶ Att: 15,740

SACRAMENTO, Calif. -- The San Diego State defense limited San Francisco State to minus 11 rushing yards and forced eight Gator turnovers en route to a 27-6 victory over San Francisco State at the Camellia Bowl.

Jim Crossley's interception return for a touchdown was the only score of the first half as the Aztecs went into intermission with a 7-0 lead. The interception was one of six SDSU had in the game.

Tom Nettles made it a 14-0 lead for the Aztecs just 2:17 into the second half when he caught a 32-yard TD pass from Joseph Turpen. Two TD runs of one and two yards by Ted Washington gave SDSU all the points it would need down the stretch.

Washington led a balanced Aztec ground game with 94 yards on 23 carries, while Turpen contributed 74 yards on 10 carries and Daniel Laskowski added 61 rushing yards. Turpen also completed 10-of-16 passes for 118 yards and the 32-yard touchdown score to Nettles.

■ 1969 Pasadena Bowl

SAN DIEGO STATE 28, BOSTON UNIV. 7

Dec. 6, 1969 ▶ Rose Bowl ▶ Att: 41,276

PASADENA, Calif. -- San Diego State spotted Boston University an early touchdown before scoring the final 28 points to earn a 28-7 triumph over the Terriers at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. It was the third bowl win for the Aztecs in four years.

John Featherstone had touchdown catches of 34 and 57 yards for the SDSU offense, which outgained Boston, 485-167, including a 294-57 advantage through the air.

Dennis Shaw completed 16-of-29 passes for 219 yards and one score, and rushed for another 59 yards on eight carries. Del Pifer led the Aztecs with 60 yards rushing, while Galen Pavelko had two interceptions on defense.

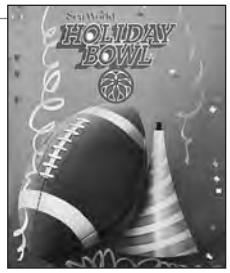
■ 1986 Holiday Bowl



IOWA 39, SAN DIEGO STATE 38

Dec. 30, 1986 ▶ Jack Murphy Stadium ▶ Att: 59,478

SAN DIEGO -- Rob Houghtlin hit a field goal as time expired to lift Iowa to a 39-38 victory over San Diego State in the Holiday Bowl before the largest crowd (59,478) ever to watch an Aztec football game at that time.

Rick Bayless led the Hawkeyes, who were down 28-13 with 7:52 left in the third quarter, with 110 yards and one touchdown on 19 carries.

After two Iowa touchdowns in the fourth quarter, SDSU's Kevin Rahill nailed a 21-yard field goal to give the Aztecs a 38-36 lead with only 47 seconds remaining. However, the Hawkeyes marched down to the Aztec 24-yard-line and Houghtlin made the game-winning kick for Iowa.

Todd Santos completed 21-of-33 passes for 298 yards and three touchdowns to lead the SDSU offense. Corey Gilmore caught nine passes for 70 yards and ran for 35 more, including a 1-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

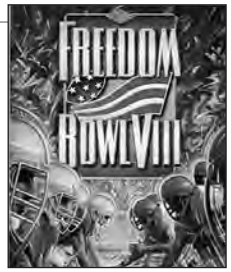
■ 1991 Freedom Bowl



TULSA 28, SAN DIEGO STATE 17

Dec. 30, 1991 ▶ Anaheim Stadium ▶ Att: 34,217

ANAHEIM, Calif. -- Ron Jackson rushed for 211 yards and a Freedom Bowl-record four touchdowns on 46 carries to lead Tulsa to a 28-17 victory over San Diego State at Anaheim Stadium.

Freshman All-American Marshall Faulk rushed for 157 yards on 30 carries, including a 2-yard touchdown run with 5:23 remaining in the first quarter to give the Aztecs an early 7-0 lead.

After two Tulsa scores, SDSU QB David Lowery capped a 10-play, 65-yard drive with a 4-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 14 at the half.

The Hurricane defense limited the Aztecs to just 83 total yards and a 26-yard field goal by Andy Trakas in the second half, before Jackson's 4-yard TD run with 3:59 remaining sealed the victory for Tulsa.

■ 1998 Las Vegas Bowl

NORTH CAROLINA 20, SAN DIEGO STATE 13

Dec. 19, 1998 ▶ Sam Boyd Stadium ▶ Att: 21,429

LAS VEGAS -- Freshman quarterback Ronald Curry ran for a 48-yard touchdown in the first quarter and linebacker Keith Newman intercepted a Brian Russell pass at the goal line in the final minute as North Carolina held on for a 20-13 victory over San Diego State in the Las Vegas Bowl.

After a 60-yard TD run by SDSU's Lonny Mitchell, UNC rattled off 20 straight points before Nate Tandberg's 32-yard field goal with 2:16 left in the first half brought the Aztecs to within 20-10.

With 9:49 to play in the game, SDSU took control on their own 6-yard line and began a march that covered 75 yards in 13 plays, culminating with a 38-yard field goal by Tanberg with 3:51 left.

The Aztecs got the ball back when Joe Tuipala recovered a fumble on the UNC 23. Two plays later, Russell hooked up with Damon Gourdine on a 13-yard gain to the 10. After an incompletion in the left corner of the end zone, SDSU saw its hopes end moments later when Russell's pass over the middle was tipped by Brandon Spoon and picked off by Newman.

With the wind blowing at nearly 50 miles per hour, the Aztecs limited the Tar Heels to 33 yards passing for the game and held a 20-8 advantage in first downs, while controlling the time of possession, 33:47-26:13.

■ 2010 Poinsettia Bowl

SAN DIEGO STATE 35, NAVY 14

Dec. 23, 2010 ▶ Qualcomm Stadium ▶ Att: 48,049

SAN DIEGO -- Ronnie Hillman scored four touchdowns and tied his career best with 228 yards rushing on 28 carries to lead San Diego State to its first bowl victory since 1969, a 35-14 win over Navy at Qualcomm Stadium.

Hillman, the Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year, scored on runs of 22, 37 and 2 yards, and pulled in a 15-yard scoring pass from Ryan Lindley.

Hillman broke the previous Poinsettia Bowl record of 129 yards rushing by Navy's Adam Ballard in 2005. The Aztecs outrushed Navy 279-235.

SDSU took a 14-0 lead in the first quarter on Hillman's 22-yard TD run and Lindley's 53-yard TD pass to Vincent Brown. Navy pulled to 14-7 on Ricky Dobbs' 30-yard scoring pass to Greg Jones early in the second quarter. Hillman put the Aztecs up by two touchdowns again as he ran untouched 37 yards up the middle with 3:15 before halftime. Navy closed within one score on Dobbs' 1-yard keeper seven seconds before halftime.

Lindley then hit a wide-open Hillman in the right corner of the end zone for a 28-14 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter. Hillman scored on a 2-yard run midway through the period for the final score of the game.

Lindley completed 18 of 23 passes for 276 yards. Wide receiver Vincent Brown had eight catches for 165 yards, also a Poinsettia Bowl record.

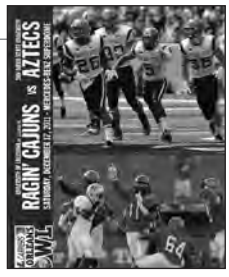
■ 2011 New Orleans Bowl



LOUISIANA 32, SAN DIEGO STATE 30

Dec. 17, 2011 ▶ M.-B. Superdome ▶ Att: 42,841

NEW ORLEANS -- Making back-to-back bowl game appearances for the first time in its 43-year Division I history, San Diego State dropped a heartbreaking 32-30 decision to Louisiana at the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

The Aztecs rallied from a 16-point third-quarter deficit to take the lead at 30-29 with just 35 seconds remaining in the game. That was enough time, however, for the Ragin' Cajuns' offense which completed two quick pass plays for a combined 39 yards to get into Aztec territory. Louisiana would move up 10 more yards, including five on a controversial penalty, to set up Brett Baer's game-winning 50-yard field goal as time expired.

San Diego State trailed nearly the entire game, opening scoring in the first quarter with a 27-yard field goal, but then allowing 19 unanswered points, including seven following an 87-yard punt return. Trailing 19-3, the Aztecs got back-to-back touchdowns on identical 16-yard pass plays from quarterback Ryan Lindley to wideout Colin Lockett to close the gap to just a pair heading into the final 15 minutes.

The two sides combined for 26 points in the fourth quarter with SDSU getting into the end zone twice and Louisiana notching a touchdown and two field goals, including the game winner.

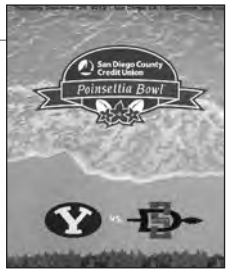
■ 2012 Poinsettia Bowl



BRIGHAM YOUNG 23, SAN DIEGO STATE 6

Dec. 20, 2012 ▶ Qualcomm Stadium ▶ Att: 35,442

SAN DIEGO -- Four San Diego State turnovers in the fourth quarter doomed the Aztecs in a 23-6 loss to Brigham Young at the Poinsettia Bowl.

Playing in their school-record third straight bowl game, three of the four turnovers in the quarter led to 20 of the Cougars' 23 points.

SDSU had taken a 6-0 lead with a pair of field goals by Chance Marden. BYU, however, completed a 12-play, 74-yard drive with a 23-yard field goal by Justin Sorensen as the first half expired to halve San Diego State's lead.

After a scoreless third quarter, Kyle Van Noy sacked Aztec quarterback Adam Dingwell and recovered the ball in the end zone to give Brigham Young its first lead of the game at 10-6 with 12:32 remaining.

Dingwell fumbled the snap on SDSU's next play from scrimmage and Jamaal Williams answered with a 14-yard touchdown run on the Cougars' first play.

With 6:09 left, Van Noy intercepted Dingwell's pass on the San Diego State 17 and got into the end zone for BYU's final points of the game.

Aztec running back Adam Muema led all players with 103 rushing yards on 26 carries.

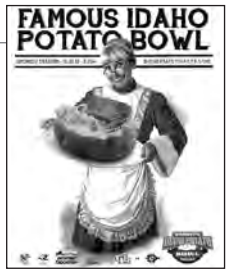
■ 2013 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl



SAN DIEGO STATE 49, BUFFALO 24

Dec. 21, 2013 ▶ Bronco Stadium ▶ Att: 21,951

BOISE, Idaho -- Adam Muema rushed for 229 yards and three touchdowns en route to earning the game's most valuable player award and helping San Diego State defeat Buffalo, 49-24, in the 2013 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. It was SDSU's first bowl win outside of its own stadium since the 1969 Pasadena Bowl.

The Aztecs, who never trailed in the contest, capitalized on three crucial Bulls turnovers, scoring 28 unanswered points during the second and third quarters to put the game out of reach.

SDSU rode the legs of quarterback Quinn Kaehler on its initial scoring drive as he tip-toed 29 yards down the right sideline on a bootleg to provide the Scarlet and Black a 7-0 advantage with 21 seconds left in the opening quarter.

After forcing a turnover, Muema tallied the first of his three scores on a 3-yard sweep to increase the SDSU lead to 14-0.

The Bulls, who were held without a first down until the 10:42 mark of the second period, managed to narrow the gap to 14-10 on a 10-yard toss from Licata to Brandon Oliver and a 38-yard field goal by Patrick Clarke.

However, the Aztecs quickly countered with a 5 play, 67-yard march, capped by Muema's 8-yard TD scamper around left end, while Kaehler hit Dylan Denso with a 25-yard scoring strike on the first play following Marcus Andrews' interception return from midfield, giving SDSU a 28-10 bulge at intermission.

Denso also made a key contribution on special teams, recovering a Buffalo fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half to put the Aztecs in business at the Bulls 26. Moments later, Kaehler connected with Adam Roberts from 11 yards out on a post pattern for his second TD pass of the day.

After forcing a three-and-out, Chad Young's 1-yard touchdown plunge increased the Aztec lead to 42-10 with 8:18 left in the third quarter.

Buffalo ended its offensive drought early in the fourth quarter, driving 73 yards in seven plays, culminating in a 23-yard touchdown reception by Alex Neutz. However, the score proved too little too late as Muema wrapped up his dazzling afternoon with a 30-yard burst into the end zone with 6:40 left in the contest

Kaehler completed 15 of 28 passes for 211 yards with two touchdowns, while wide receiver Ezell Ruffin hauled in five catches, including a 39-yarder on SDSU's third scoring drive.

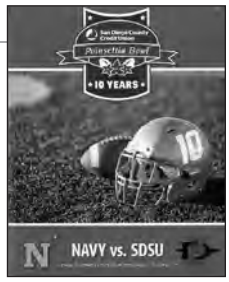
■ 2014 Poinsettia Bowl



NAVY 17, SAN DIEGO STATE 16

Dec. 23, 2014 ▶ Qualcomm Stadium ▶ Att: 33,077

SAN DIEGO -- Donny Hageman missed a 34-yard field goal with 20 seconds left as Navy held on for a narrow 17-16 triumph over San Diego State in the 2014 Poinsettia Bowl.

After the Midshipmen scored the go-ahead points on a 30-yard field goal by Austin Grebe with 1:27 remaining, the Aztecs mounted one last charge, marching 63 yards to the Navy 17. Quinn Kaehler completed 4 of 6 passes on the drive, connecting with Eric Judge on a 32-yard gain followed by a 16-yarder to Donnel Pumphrey to put SDSU in striking position. However, Hageman's game-winning attempt was wide right, snapping the Aztecs' eight-game home victory streak.

Pumphrey ran for 112 yards and one touchdown to establish an SDSU single-season rushing record with 1,867 yards, eclipsing George Jones' standard of 1,852 yards set in 1995.

Navy drew first blood on a 1-yard plunge by quarterback Keenan Reynolds before the Aztecs reeled off 13 straight points on a 5-yard burst by Pumphrey and Hageman field goals of 43 and 37 yards.

The Midshipmen scored on their first possession of the second half, driving 92 yards on 13 plays, capped by Reynolds' second touchdown of the evening.

After forcing a punt, Navy got the ball back. But on 3rd and10, Devante Davis recovered a fumble by Midshipmen slot back DeBrandon Sanders, putting SDSU in business at the Navy 18. Four plays later, Hageman split the uprights from 30 yards out, giving the Aztecs a 16-14 advantage.

SDSU had a chance to extend its lead in the fourth quarter after reaching the Navy 12. However, Kaehler's fourth-down pass to Mikah Holder fell incomplete.

Kaehler completed just 11 of 27 passes for 141 yards with two interceptions, including one on the' Aztecs' opening drive, which led to Navy's first touchdown.

■ 2015 Hawai'i Bowl

SAN DIEGO STATE 42, CINCINNATI 7

Dec. 24, 2015 ▶ Aloha Stadium ▶ Att: 22,793

HONOLULU -- Fueled by a strong running game, timely special teams play and a dominating defense, San Diego State routed Cincinnati, 42-7, in the 2015 Hawai'i Bowl. The Aztecs (11-3) tied a program record with their 10th straight victory and finished the year with their first 11-win season since 1969.

SDSU wasted no time in establishing control as Rashaad Penny returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown. It was the third score on a kickoff return this season for the Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Year, who also broke the Hawai'i Bowl record for longest return.

Fullback Dakota Gordon collected the game's Most Valuable Player award after scoring two touchdowns, including a 16-yard reception on an option pass from Donnel Pumphrey in the second quarter, which gave the Aztecs an insurmountable 21-0 lead by halftime.

Pumphrey, the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year, carried the ball 25 times for 99 yards and one touchdown, while teammate Chase Price added 68 yards on 13 attempts. With their totals, Pumphrey

Bowl History

(1,658 yards) and Price (1,008 yards) became the first pair of running backs in Aztec history to rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season.

The Bearcats entered the game ranked first nationally in passing yards (373.1) and total offense (559.4), but were limited to 279 yards on the day by a stifling SDSU defense which registered four sacks and three interceptions, including a 43-yard return for a touchdown by defensive lineman Alex Barrett in the fourth quarter.

Making just his second collegiate start, Aztec quarterback Christian Chapman completed 8 of 11 passes for 113 yards, highlighted by a 14-yard scoring strike to Mikah Holder in the first quarter.

In addition, to Barrett's pick, defensive backs Malik Smith and Damontae Kazee thwarted two Cincinnati drives with interceptions in the first half, while lineman Kyle Kelley led the SDSU pass rush with a career-high 3.5 sacks.

■ 2016 Las Vegas Bowl

SAN DIEGO STATE 34, HOUSTON 10

Dec. 17, 2016 ▶ Sam Boyd Stadium ▶ Att: 29,286

LAS VEGAS -- Donnel Pumphrey broke the NCAA career rushing record in 2016 in his college finale, running for 115 yards and a touchdown in San Diego State's 34-10 victory over Houston in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Pumphrey passed former Wisconsin star Ron Dayne's mark of 6,397 yards on a 15-yard run early in the fourth quarter, with teammates swarming him on the sideline, and wrapping up his sensational career in his Nevada hometown with 6,405 yards.

Pumphrey's senior total of 2,133 yards rushing ranked him in the top 10 for an FBS player at the time.

Ron Smith returned an interception 54 yards for a touchdown, Curtis Anderson caught a 28-yard touchdown pass from Christian Chapman, Juwan Washington ran for a touchdown, and John Baron kicked two field goals for the Aztecs (11-3). They overcame a 10-0 first-quarter deficit against the Cougars (9-4) for their second consecutive bowl win.

Neither the victory nor Pumphrey's record-setting performance seemed likely after Houston's defense absolutely smothered the Aztecs in the first quarter. Led by freshman Ed Oliver, Houston had seven tackles for loss on San Diego State's first 16 plays. Pumphrey had minus-1 yard rushing on seven carries in the first quarter and the Aztecs didn't have a first down until the first play of the second quarter - on a penalty for running into the kicker.

But Pumphrey started to gash Houston on the perimeter, giving San Diego State the lead for good on a 32-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter, and the defense intercepted four of Houston quarterback Greg Ward Jr.'s passes in the second half.

Ward threw for 229 yards and had a 2-yard touchdown run, tying Bryce Beall's school record of 39 rushing touchdowns.

■ 2017 Armed Forces Bowl

ARMY WEST POINT 42, SAN DIEGO STATE 35

Dec. 23, 2017 ▶ Amon Carter Stadium ▶ Att: 35,986

FORT WORTH, Texas -- Despite 221 yards and four touchdowns from Rashaad Penny, San Diego State fell to Army West Point, 42-35, in the final minute of the 2017 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

The Black Knights' Darnell Woolfolk scored on a 1-yard touchdown run with 18 seconds left and then Kell Walker converted the go-ahead two-point conversion run, before Army West Point's Elijah Riley returned a SDSU fumble 29 yards as time expired.

San Diego State was able to run only 31 plays to Army West Point's 91 and lost the time of possession battle by 32 minutes (46:00 to 14:00).

The Aztecs went into the game ranked ninth in FBS rush defense, allowing 110.4 yards per game. However, Army West Point ran for 120 in the first quarter and for 440 overall.

Penny ran for 221 yards, which made him just the fourth FBS player to run for 200 yards in five straight games. His scores came on runs of 81, on his first carry, 31, 49 and 4 yards. Penny finished with a school-record 2,248 rushing yards on the year, breaking the mark set in 2016 by Donnel Pumphrey.

Juwan Washington also returned a kick 78 yards for a touchdown for San Diego State's other score and added 44 rushing yards on five carries.

Army West Point only completed one pass on four attempts while the Aztecs' Christian Chapman went 6-for-10 for 25 yards with an interception.

SDSU had three players with double-digit tackles: Kyahva Tezino (17), Ronley Lakalaka (15), and Parker Baldwin (10). Tezino's 17 stops were the most by an Aztec since Corey Boudreaux (21) and Andrew Preston (18) on October 11, 2008, vs. Air Force.

Ahmad Bradshaw ran for 180 yards to lead the Black Knights, while matching Penny with four touchdowns.

■ 2018 Frisco Bowl

OHIO 27, SAN DIEGO STATE 0

Dec. 19, 2018 ▶ Toyota Stadium ▶ Att: 11,029

FRISCO, Texas -- Nathan Rourke ran for two touchdowns and threw for another score, leading Ohio to a 27-0 victory over San Diego State in the drizzly DXL Frisco Bowl in Frisco, Texas.

A.J. Ouellette rushed for 164 yards and the Bobcats finished with 215 on the ground, the most the Aztecs allowed all season with the fourth-best run defense in FBS.

San Diego State was shut out for the first time since Nov. 18, 2006 at TCU and for the first time in a bowl since its first postseason appearance -- a 53-0 loss to Hardin-Simmons in the 1948 Harbor Bowl at Balboa Stadium in San Diego.

Juwan Washington rushed for 129 yards to lead SDSU, missing 1,000 yards for the season by just one yard (999), despite missing four-plus games with an injury.

The loss was the first by the Aztecs against a Mid-American Conference team. SDSU was 13-0-1 against the MAC prior to the Frisco Bowl.

SDSU had gone 10 straight games decided by single-digits, which stands as the longest such streak since at least 1980.

Rourke scored on a 9-yard run around left end to cap a 15-play drive for a 10-0 Bobcat lead in the second quarter.

Rourke's other scoring run was from 11 yards before halftime, and he threw a 35-yard TD to Andrew Meyer near the goal line on a flea-flicker from Ouellette in the fourth quarter.

NFL Draft

AZTECS In The NFL Draft

San Diego State has a storied history of sending its student-athletes to the National Football League. Over the years, the Aztecs have had 160 players selected in the NFL Draft, which leads the Mountain West. Of that total, 57 have been picked within the first 100 selections.

Rashaad Penny (above) was a first-round pick by the Seattle Seahawks in 2018, making him the second running back taken in the draft.

Tight end Kahale Warring (above) was taken in the third round with the 86th pick in the 2019 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans. Warring caught 51 passes for 637 yards and eight touchdowns for his career, including 31 catches for 372 yards and three TDs in 2018 as an honorable mention all-MW pick.

San Diego State University

Hepner Hall

San Diego State University has grown and developed through its 122-year history into one of the nation's major public research institutions. Our 36,000 students and over 400,000 alumni are proud to live the ethos "Leadership Starts Here."

The university offers bachelor's degrees in 91 majors, master's degrees in 76 programs and doctorates in 23 areas.

SDSU is committed to diversity and to excellence. Over 53 percent of our undergraduate students are students of color, and the university is nationally recognized for sending over 90 students abroad as Fulbright Scholars since 2005, as well as its programs that serve nearly 3,700 military-affiliated students.

Students from all backgrounds have opportunities for transformative educational experiences such as undergraduate research, study abroad, internships and entrepreneurship training.

Classified as a high-research university, SDSU received $135 million in research funding during the 2017-18 fiscal year. Our researchers focus on real-world challenges, and our students benefit from access to cutting-edge technology and engaging in research alongside mentors who are leaders in their fields.

SDSU faculty, staff and students lead the way in fields such as understanding and treating heart disease; engineering brain-controlled robotic devices and alternative energy solutions; studying health issues such as autism, fetal alcohol syndrome and childhood obesity; and learning more about bacteriophages – viruses that kill bacteria and hold important keys to human health problems.

SDSU leverages its strategic location on the Pacific Rim and the border of Latin America to advance international study and research. The university has over 650 education programs in 70 countries and is among the nation's leaders in the number of students who study abroad.

Led by our Lavin Entrepreneurship Center and our Zahn Innovation Center, SDSU is recognized as one of the top universities in the nation for entrepreneurship.

SDSU engages our greater community by hosting more than 300 on-campus arts events annually and fielding nationally recognized athletics teams.

The university's first comprehensive fundraising campaign helped fuel this academic and research excellence. The recently concluded Campaign for SDSU raised over $815 million for scholarships, faculty and staff support, and innovative programs. Generous donors established a culture of philanthropy that will continue and ensure that San Diego State will thrive throughout this century and beyond.

ACADEMIC STRENGTH

• San Diego State University continues to gain recognition as a leader in higher education. It ranks No. 60 among public universities, and in the top 130 overall in U.S. News & World Report's annual ranking of America's Best Colleges. SDSU also placed No. 45 nationally on the U.S. News list of "most innovative schools."

• SDSU's undergraduate international business program ranks No. 12 in the nation, and its undergraduate business and engineering programs rank in the top 100 of U.S. News and World Report's list. The College of Education is No. 54 in the country and No. 7 in California. Individual graduate programs ranked in the top 30 include rehabilitation counseling (No. 10), speech and language pathology (No. 24), clinical psychology (No. 25), nursing midwifery (No. 28) and audiology (No. 30).

• San Diego State University is a hub of student invention and innovation, led by the Lavin Entrepreneurship Center and our ZIP Launchpad. Forbes magazine ranked SDSU No. 23 on its list of America's Most Entrepreneurial Universities, while U.S. News and World Report ranked SDSU's entrepreneurship program No. 21 among the nation's public universities and Fortune ranked the university among the top 25 most entrepreneurial in the nation.

• San Diego State University students are graduating at record high rates across all seven colleges, and SDSU now ranks No. 1 nationally in graduation rate performance, based on U.S. News & World Report's most recent college rankings. This top rank for graduation rate performance acknowledges the university's success in serving students of many different economic, racial, ethnic and gender affiliations.

A CULTURE OF ENGAGEMENT

• SDSU engages its alumni and encourages them to share their professional expertise and experience with current students through programs such as the Aztec Mentor Program. A collaboration between SDSU Alumni and Student Affairs, the program has matched more than 7,400 students with alumni mentors.

• SDSU is a welcoming environment for all students. Recently, the university created a Black Resource Center and an Undocumented Resource Area to serve students alongside existing support centers such as the Pride Center, the Women's Resource Center, the Commuter Resource Center, the Veterans Center, the International Student Center and the Student Ability Success Center.

• Arts Alive SDSU integrates arts events and arts practices into the university's curriculum and recognizes art as a campus-wide value on par with research and international study. With nearly 300 events scheduled each year, Arts Alive reaches an audience of more than 125,000 annually.

• The university's Economic Crisis Response Team is a group of staff, administrators, students, and faculty working together to ensure that students experiencing food or housing insecurity or other unforeseen financial crises receive short-term and long-term aid quickly and without stigmatization.

• San Diego State University is one of only a handful of universities nationwide to be recognized for six consecutive years by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) for the sustained excellence of its fundraising program.

COMMUNITY ROOTS

• San Diego voters have approved SDSU's plan to build a world class university research and innovation campus, a river park, a new stadium plus affordable and market-rate housing at the site including and immediately surrounding SDCCU Stadium. Construction will begin in 2020.

• Led by Associated Students, the SDSU community confronted the significant challenges of hunger and food insecurity in San Diego by raising more than 590,000 pounds of food in the Aztecs Rock Hunger drive during fall 2018. Eighty percent of monetary donations go to the Jacobs and Cushman Food Bank, while the remaining 20 percent remains on campus to provide short-term and long-term aid to students experiencing food insecurity.

• SDSU's Guardian Scholars program is a unique opportunity for students leaving the foster care system. Young men and women accepted into the program receive full scholarships, year-round housing and academic mentoring to support them in becoming active community members.

• The Price Community Scholars program provides financial support for local, first-generation students with track records of strong academic achievement and leadership in high school. They, in turn, mentor neighborhood middle school students who aspire to earn college degrees.

A DIVERSE CAMPUS

• SDSU is ranked by CampusPride.org among the top LGBT-friendly campuses in the nation. The Pride Center, an inclusive, safe and affirming gathering space, facilitates education, awareness and research on issues related to sexuality and gender.

• SDSU received the INSIGHT Into Diversity Higher Education Excellence in Diversity Award for five consecutive years. This national honor recognizes colleges and universities that demonstrate outstanding commitment to diversity and inclusion.

• Consistently ranked by the Military Times as a top school for veterans, SDSU serves nearly 3,700 student-veterans, active duty, reservists and dependents each year through the Joan and Art Barron Veterans Center and academic programs such as Troops to Engineers.

• Our Imperial Valley campus, a powerful engine of economic growth for the border region, serves a diverse student body comprised largely of groups that are historically underrepresented in higher education.

AN INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVE

• San Diego State University ranks No. 5 nationally and No. 1 in California for the number of students studying abroad in the latest Institute for International Education's Open Doors report. More than 3,000 students have international experiences each year, choosing from more than 650 programs in 70 countries.

• SDSU has been named a Gilman International Scholarship Top Producing Institution by the U.S. Department of State. The university tied for 14th in the nation among large colleges and universities for the number of students sent abroad through the Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program.

• Each year, SDSU welcomes more than 3,000 international students from more than 70 countries on five continents. They are enrolled as fully matriculated students or as part of the American Language Institute (ALI), of which SDSU's affiliate is one of the largest in the country.

• The J. Keith Behner and Catherine M. Stiefel Program on Brazil is SDSU's first endowed academic program with an international focus. Over the next five years, through research collaborations with major Brazilian universities, SDSU will strengthen its global leadership in public health, environmental sciences, international business and urban development.

RESEARCH ACCOMPLISHMENTS

• San Diego State University faculty continue to win significant research funding. In fiscal 2017-18, they secured $135 million in public and private funding—a total of 756 awards to 285 principal investigators. SDSU researchers addressed important subjects like restorative justice practices in schools, RNA modification, biomathematics, and post-wildfire storm runoff. Their research shed new light on lung disease, adolescent anxiety, cancer, diabetes, Dengue Virus, and many other disorders.

• In 2018, SDSU received a $19.9 million research award—one of the largest in university history—to create a new center for transdisciplinary research on health disparities throughout San Diego and Imperial counties. The five-year award is part of an effort by the National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities to support the research enterprise of minority-serving institutions like SDSU.

• To further support research, SDSU has built an Engineering and Interdisciplinary Science Complex, where researchers are developing collaborative projects to turn discoveries into real-world applications. The EIS Complex enhances the university's teaching and research capacities and help attract the best and brightest faculty, graduate and undergraduate students.

• The Student Research Symposium is an annual forum for SDSU's graduate and undergraduate students to present their faculty-mentored research. More than 500 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students across 70 majors and disciplines participated in 2018.

MOVING FORWARD

• San Diego State University is a place of knowledge, experience and impact. It is one of the oldest institutions in California, with 400,000+ living alumni and many more friends in the community who have a stake in its future. As we engage with our supporters in joint initiatives that advance the welfare of the broader San Diego region, student success will continue to be the foundational force moving us forward.

University President

Dr. Adela de la Torre was appointed by the California State University Board of Trustees as the new president of San Diego State University.

Arriving on campus in June 2018, Dr. de la Torre is the ninth permanent president of SDSU and the first woman to serve in that role. She brings with her 30 years of service in leadership roles at institutions of higher education, including the California State University system, the University of Arizona and the University of California, Davis.

Prior to her appointment as President, Dr. de la Torre worked in a variety of leadership positions at UC Davis, culminating in her role as vice chancellor for student affairs and campus diversity, where she oversaw a division encompassing 28 departments and units that provide services and facilities to foster academic success, student development and campus community. In addition, she spent 14 years from 2004-18 directing the UC Davis Center for Transnational Health and served a two-year stint (2009-11) as chair of the UC Davis Chicana/Chicano Studies Department, after becoming the first Latina to receive the rank of distinguished professor.

During her tenure at Arizona from 1996-2002, Dr. de la Torre was the director of the Mexican American Studies and Research Center, successfully developing the first graduate program in Mexican American Studies. She also founded the College of Medicine's first federally funded Hispanic Center of Excellence.

Dr. de la Torre was also a professor at California State University, Long Beach, serving as chair of the department of Chicano/Latino Studies. She was additionally selected by members of the California State University system to serve a one-year appointment (1995-96) as a management fellow, which involved systemwide strategic planning, higher education legislative initiatives, enrollment and growth planning, as well as systemwide presidential and board of trustee meetings.

Dr. de la Torre's research focuses on aspects of Latino community health – an area where SDSU is a national leader. Her research was previously recognized by the American Society of Hispanic Economists in 2016, when it honored her with its biennial Academic Achievement Award.

Dr. de la Torre's grandparents immigrated to the Central Valley from Mexico. She grew up in the Bay Area, where her grandmother and mother taught her important cultural traditions – the importance of family, the value of hard work and the power of education. Her mother attended both Modesto Community College and the University of California, Berkeley and was a public school teacher for 40 years.

Dr. de la Torre earned a bachelor of science degree in the political economy of natural resources and a master of science and Ph.D. in agricultural and resource economics all from Cal.

John David Wicker
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

John David Wicker was introduced as San Diego State University's new Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on Oct. 24, 2016.

"It feels great to be back on the Mesa," Wicker said. "I loved my four years here with the coaches, the staff and all the student athletes. I'm thrilled with this opportunity and I am looking forward to helping SDSU Athletics move to next level of success."

Wicker was SDSU's Deputy Athletic Director from 2011 until leaving for Georgia Tech in July 2015. During his first term at SDSU, he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Aztecs athletics department, overseeing business operations, human resources, events and facilities, capital projects, strength and conditioning, academics, video and sport oversight for football, rowing, and men's and women's basketball.

"When we began this search, we envisioned a person who cares about our student athletes, whose integrity is paramount and whose competitive fire inspires greatness. In short, someone who embodies our ideal of `winning it right.' John David Wicker is that person," said then-SDSU President Elliot Hirshman.

Prior to his time at SDSU, he was the Associate Athletic Director for Event and Facility Operations at Washington State from 2001-11. While at Washington State, he was responsible for event planning and game day responsibilities for all home athletic events, conference tournaments and NCAA championships, day-to-day oversight and operations of all athletic facilities, and the liaison for the athletic department on capital projects.

From 1999 to 2001 Wicker served as Director of Event and Facility Operations at Southern Miss. At USM, he oversaw regular season and championship event operations, coordinated day-to-day maintenance of facilities, and was the liaison to the university on all capital projects. He also oversaw the design and initial construction of USM's $11 million Athletic Center, which houses administrative and coaching offices, football locker room, weight room and training area.

Wicker also spent three years at Georgia from (1996-99), where he also worked for the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games in preparation for the 1996 Summer Olympics as the venue logistics manager for Sanford Stadium, home to the medal rounds for men's and women's soccer.

Wicker took over an athletic department that has enjoyed great success in recent years. The football team, which has posted three consecutive 10-win seasons, made its ninth consecutive bowl game appearance in 2018. Men's basketball has been to the postseason in 12 out of the last 14 years. Teams, from women's track and field to men's and women's golf, to baseball and softball, have combined for 41 team conference championships since the beginning of the 2012-13 school year.

"One of our top priorities will be to generate more excitement about Aztec Athletics on campus, in the community, and with our close to 300,000 alumni across the nation," Wicker said. "People around the country know what an incredible atmosphere Viejas Arena is. And that is in no small part because of the fans. There is no reason why we can't have a similar atmosphere at our football games, at Tony Gwynn Stadium for baseball, on the Sports Deck for soccer games and more."

Wicker graduated from Mississippi State in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in professional accountancy. He received his master's degree in education with an emphasis in sports management from Georgia in 1997.

Wicker resides in Santee, Calif., with and his wife Rachel and daughters Scarlett Anne and Waverly Lile.

65

San Diego State teams have advanced to NCAA championships in the last eight seasons (average 8.1 per year)

44

Team conference championships since the beginning of the 2012-13 season

14

SDSU is one of just 14 programs nationally that has played in a bowl game in each season since 2010 and one of just two from a non-Power Five conference, along with Boise State

This is the Mountain West

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 21st year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 20 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Changes in the NCAA governance structure set the table for another Conference first, when two members of the MW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were included in the June 2014 meeting of the Mountain West Board of Directors. New Mexico track and field athlete Kendall Spencer, the national chair of the 2014-15 NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and Air Force Academy volleyball player Emma Dridge joined the BOD members in this historic meeting to advance the discussion on student-athlete involvement in the NCAA and MW governance structure. During the last four academic years, MW student-athletes participated on monthly membership calls and have joined MW administrators in the annual Joint Council Spring Meetings in Arizona.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the new NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics. Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the only conference to have the same member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

History

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State and Utah State joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

Entering the 2018 season, the MW has agreements with seven different bowl games that will generate at least five guaranteed postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions with the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl and Hawai'i Bowl - and secondary positions with the Cactus Bowl and the Foster Farms Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in six inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

2018-19 Review

From the gridiron to the diamond, Mountain West teams enjoyed a strong year in 2018-19. In football, the sixth annual MW Football Championship Game took place on December 1, 2018 at Albertsons Stadium in Boise, Idaho. The Broncos, champions of the Mountain Division, hosted four-time defending West Division champion Fresno State, with the Bulldogs claiming their second conference title, 19-16, in overtime.

For the sixth straight season, the Mountain West sent at least six teams into postseason bowl games. The league has earned 96 bowl bids since 1999 and holds a 52-43 (.547) all-time record (2019 First Responder Bowl between Boise State and Boston College was cancelled due to weather). The 2018 bowl season marked the 11th consecutive year the MW sent at least five teams to bowls and the 15th time overall since the league's inception.

Nevada captured the Mountain West regular-season men's basketball title, while Utah State won the tournament championship. The Aggies earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA tournament, while the Wolf Pack accepted an at-large bid, marking the second consecutive year that the MW had multiple teams participate in the Big Dance. In June, three MW student-athletes were drafted in the second round of the 2019 NBA Draft. The three selections were the most among the non-autonomous conferences and it was just the second time in league history at least three MW players were drafted.

In women's basketball, Boise State won both the regular season and tournament title. The second regular season title for the Broncos and the third straight tournament title sent the Orange and Blue to the Big Dance. The Broncos fell 80-75 in overtime against Oregon State to conclude their 28-5 season. Fresno State, New Mexico and Wyoming participated in the WNIT as the Cowgirls advanced to the quarterfinals before falling to Arizona. Utah State participated in the WBI.

In women's volleyball, Colorado State earned its 24th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, while securing the programs 15th Mountain West title. The Rams concluded the season with a tournament loss against Tennessee after posting a 23-8 record. Fresno State, UNLV and Wyoming all participated in the NIVC.

San José State earned its second MW title in women's soccer, as the Spartans made their third overall NCAA Tournament appearance.

In cross country, the New Mexico women's program was the national runner-up at the NCAA championship with sophomore Weini Kelati finishing as the individual runner-up. The Lobos had three of the top-10 finishers at the event.

During the indoor track season, 21 student-athletes garnered All-America honors. Air Force senior Michael Rhoads was the lone men's first-team honoree after placing in the top eight of the 800-meters event. On the women's side, San Diego State's Bonnie Draxler earned a runner-up finish in the pole vault and set the Conference record in the event. The New Mexico women's program finished in fifth place, which is the best MW finish at the NCAA championships since 2009 (third).

The MW had two national champions during the 2019 outdoor track & field season in Boise State's Allie Ostrander and New Mexico's Kelati. Ostrander became the first back-to-back-to-back champion in the women's 3,000-meter steeplechase, while Kelati garnered her first NCAA gold in the 10,000-meter race, which marked the fourth time the league had two women's NCAA champions in the same season. The New Mexico women's program finished second in the USTFCCCA Program of the Year Standings, which honors the best NCAA institutions over cross country, indoor and the outdoor seasons.

In women's swimming and diving, San Diego State's Klara Thormalm earned CSCAA All-American status for her performance in the 100-yard breaststroke and the Aztecs won their fourth team MW championship.

nament title, earning the Conference's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament. Bulldogs' head coach Luke Shields was named Northwest Region Wilson/ITA Coach of the Year. On the women's side, UNLV won its sixth MW title. In individual competition, UNLV's Aiwen Zhu finished one victory shy of earning All-America honors after advancing to the second round of the NCAA Singles Championship.

The New Mexico men's golf team captured its seventh Mountain West championship as the league sent five teams and one individual to the NCAA regionals. It was the 20th consecutive season the MW sent at least three teams to NCAA regionals and first time since 2012 at least five Conference teams earned a postseason spot. Nationally ranked UNLV advanced through the Myrtle Beach Regional and advanced to the NCAA Men's Golf Championship for the third consecutive year.

On the women's side, San Diego State captured its second MW title and the league was represented by two teams and three individuals in the NCAA regionals. The league has sent multiple teams to the NCAA Women's Golf Regionals in 19 of its 20 years. San José State freshman Natasha Andrea Oon earned WGCA All-America honors to conclude the season.

Colorado State won its second MW softball title and first since 2004, garnering the Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The Rams were joined in the tournament by Boise State, which defeated Stanford to claim its first NCAA tournament victory. Fresno State and Nevada competed in the National Invitational Softball Championship.

In baseball, Fresno State, which climbed as high as No. 21 in the national polls, earned the league's automatic bid and made its first trip to the NCAA tournament since 2012. The Bulldogs also won the Mountain West's regular-season crown. A total of 24 players were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft, including a pair in the first round (UNLV's Bryson Stott and Fresno State's Ryan Jensen).

Opportunity

The Mountain West provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for more than 5,100 student-athletes each year. Over the past 20 years, 43 Mountain West student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, and since the league's inception in 1999, an additional 39 student-athletes have been named MW Scholar-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships. Four Mountain West student-athletes have earned distinction as Rhodes Scholars (Jessica Mellinger, Wyoming, and Delavane Diaz, Brittany Morreale and Rebecca Esselstein, Air Force).

Conference student-athletes are also given a voice regarding pertinent issues within the MW and NCAA governance structure through representation on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The Mountain West SAAC is comprised of 24 members (22 student-athlete representatives, the MW representative to the Division I National SAAC and one faculty athletics representative). The committee reviews and reacts to legislation and to other topics referred by the Conference constituent groups or committees related to the student-athlete experience. Since the inclusion of two SAAC members at the June 2014 meeting of the MW Board of Directors, the Conference maintains its commitment to the participation of student-athletes in its governance structure, which is consistent with the Mountain West's focus on enhancing the student-athlete experience.

Academic Consortium

From the outset, Mountain West member institutions have been committed to creating strong academic relationships, as well as athletic competition. To that end, the chief academic officers of each institution have explored academic exchange programs, library crossovers and shared research. In addition, the faculty athletics representatives routinely provide academic assistance and test-taking services for student-athletes visiting from fellow member institutions for competition.

Achievement

The MW has produced 1,214 All-America selections among its 18 sponsored sports (men's swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season) in the last 20 years, including a league-record 103 All-America honorees in 2016-17. A total of 212 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The Mountain West has sent at least 25 teams to NCAA postseason events in each of the past 20 years, capturing five team national championships in women's cross country and producing 49 individual national champions in the sports of men's golf, men's cross country, women's diving, and men's and women's indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have participated in 96 bowl games under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games and one CFP game. The MW has earned 84 postseason bids in men's basketball, with six Sweet 16 appearances, as well as three NIT Final Four berths. MW women's basketball has tallied 81 postseason slots, including 38 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. Wyoming won the MW's first WNIT championship in 2007 with a win over Wisconsin. In women's volleyball, the MW has had 44 NCAA bids with nine Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Women's soccer has earned 33 NCAA bids since 1999, with two Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Mountain West men's golf has sent at least three teams to the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals in each of its 20 years, while women's golf has had at least three teams participate in NCAA Regionals 15 of the last 20 years.

Sportsmanship

Named a Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport in 1998, Commissioner Thompson has been a driving force for sportsmanship within intercollegiate athletics. As part of its continuing growth and development, the Mountain West implemented an extensive Sportsmanship Initiative, endorsed by both the MW Joint Council and MW Board of Directors. The program is made up of several elements, which are both practical and philosophical in nature. While the MW has significant penalties in place to deal with violations, the Sportsmanship Initiative is primarily promotional and educational in nature. The goal is to develop an environment that fosters appropriate behavior from all Conference constituencies.

The Aztecs celebrate after defeating Wyoming, 27-24, in the Mountain West Championship Game on Dec. 3, 2016, which marked the 21st conference championship in program history.

SDCCU Stadium

NINE STRAIGHT BOWL GAME APPEARANCES ▶ 21 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

On September 15, 1967, the San Diego State University football team first stepped onto the turf of what Sports Illustrated would later call the finest multi-purpose stadium in America - San Diego Stadium. That night, the Aztecs, led by head coach Don Coryell and players like Haven Moses, Fred Dryer, Tom Nettles and Nate Wright, defeated Tennessee State 16-8 in front of 45,822 fans.

In an effort to prepare the stadium for the next century, a $66.4 million renovation project was undertaken in 1997, which increased seating to 71,400, added 31 luxury suites; created 7,600 club seats, and added a second Sony Jumbotron video board in the West end zone.

To help in financing the renovation project, Qualcomm, a local communications company, agreed to provide $18 million for the naming rights of the Stadium, which expired after 20 years in June 2017.

The facility was renamed SDCCU Stadium in September 2017 after San Diego County Credit Union won the new naming rights bid for $500,000, which will extend through December 2018.

SDCCU Stadium is located at the intersection of Interstates 8 and 15 in Mission Valley, less than five miles from the university. With the relocation of the National Football League's Chargers to Los Angeles, San Diego State is the facility's lone remaining charter tenant. In the 50 years since that opening night, some of the greatest names in Aztec football history have displayed their talents there - Dennis Shaw, Brian Sipe, Isaac Curtis, Willie Buchanon, Todd Santos, Webster Slaughter, Rob Awalt, Don Warren, Dan McGwire, Henry Allison, Claudie Minor, Jesse Freitas, Craig Penrose, David "Deacon" Turner, Darnay Scott, Kirk Morrison, Marshall Faulk and Donnel Pumphrey to name a few.

In addition to the Aztecs, the San Diego County Credit Union Holiday Bowl has come to call it home. The Stadium has also been the site of such renowned events as the Super Bowl, the World Series and baseball's All-Star Game.

Constructed at a cost of $27 million, San Diego Stadium opened August 20, 1967, with an exhibition game between the San Diego Chargers and Detroit Lions. Since that game, the facility has been the stage for some of the most memorable events in San Diego State football history. A then-record attendance of 53,611 was on hand November 8, 1975, when the unbeaten Aztecs were involved in one of the most dramatic games ever played in San Diego, but the Arizona Wildcats prevailed, 31-24.

In 1975, average attendance for six home games was 42,040. In '77, a crowd of 50,453 saw the Aztecs hammer 15th-ranked Florida State, 41-16. On January 6, 1981, the name of the facility was changed officially to San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium. Murphy, a nationally-known columnist and the sports editor of the San Diego Union-Tribune, had led the campaign to have the stadium constructed. He had died in 1980.

In 1984, 49,220 fans nearly carried SDSU to an upset of UCLA, as the Bruins hung on to an 18-15 victory. The Aztecs clinched their first Western Athletic Conference championship and a berth in the Holiday Bowl with a 10-3 victory over Brigham Young on November 29, 1986, in front of a Stadium crowd of 45,062. SDSU then played host to Iowa in one of the most memorable Holiday Bowls ever. The hometown Aztecs fought the perennial Big Ten power to a standstill before losing 39-38 on a last second Hawkeye field goal. A crowd of 59,473 witnessed that game on December 30, 1986, which was the largest crowd ever to see SDSU in San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium. State's large and vocal crowds have had much to cheer about through the years. As they await the 2017 season, the Aztecs' all time record in Mission Valley is 206-104-6 (.661).

The stadium underwent a major facelift in 1985. Built initially to seat 52,675 for football, the expansion project pushed capacity to 60,409, and current capacity is 70,561. Largely as a result, the National Football League voted to hold the 1988 Super Bowl game in San Diego where the Washington Redskins defeated the Denver Broncos, 42-10. That national spectacle returned in 1998 to witness the Denver Broncos defeat the Green Bay Packers, 31-24. The most recent Super Bowl hosted in Mission Valley was 2003, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers routed the Oakland Raiders, 48-21.

Prior to the stadium's opening, the Aztecs played their games in Aztec Bowl - a 13,000-seat facility on campus - and the 34,500-seat Balboa Stadium downtown. The team's record crowd had been the 35,342 fans who jammed Balboa Stadium to see the Aztecs meet North Dakota State in 1966. North Dakota State was the No. 1 small college team in the nation at the time, but the Aztecs won the game 36-0. The victory served as a springboard for San Diego State's national small college championships in 1966, 1967 and 1969 and a move to Division I-A at the end of the 1968 season.

San Diego State moved to what is now SDCCU Stadium in 1967. From 1936-66, the Aztecs played most of their home games in Aztec Bowl on campus, where they had a record of 77-44-5 (.636).

From 1921-35, the team's home field alternated between Balboa Stadium (38-42-4) and Lane Field (12-12-4) with an occasional game played on the old Normal School campus at College Field (9-3-1). Two games were also played at Aztec Field, the old track and field stadium which was located north of the Aztec Center. Since 1973, nearly 75 percent of all Aztec football games have been played at night. The Aztecs played their first and San Diego's first night football game on Sept. 25, 1930, at Lane Field against the San Diego Marine JVs.

Naming of the Stadium

The original name of the stadium was San Diego Stadium. When Jack Murphy died on September 24, 1980, then Mayor Pete Wilson and the City Council voted to rename it San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium. The voters officially approved the name change later that year.

After the 1997 renovation, the name changed again. Qualcomm, a local telecommunication company, agreed to pay the City $18 million to complete the expansion project. In return the name changed to Qualcomm Stadium. The naming rights deal expired in June 2017.

San Diego County Credit Union won the new naming rights bid for $500,000 and the Mission Valley facility was renamed SDCCU Stadium in September 2018.

Credentials

All requests for press and photo credentials should be submitted to the media relations office on official letterhead at least three days in advance of the game. Requests should be directed to Mike May or Jamie McConeghy and should be submitted by the sports editor or sports director of the media outlet.

Priority is given to daily newspapers, television stations and radio stations with sports programming.

If approved, media members can obtain their credentials at the media will call table located at Gate H, beginning two hours before kickoff.

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Family and friends are not allowed in the press area.

SINGLE-GAME CREDENTIALS

The San Diego State media relations office will distribute media credentials on a single-game basis only during the 2019 season.

Requests should be made for single-game credentials at least three days prior to the game. Any organization that requests a single-game credential and does not use it, may not be granted another pass for the remainder of the season. No credentials will be granted after Thursday of game week.

SDCCU Stadium

SDCCU Stadium is the home of the SDSU Aztecs, as well as the site of the San Diego County Credit Union Holiday Bowl. The stadium is located off Interstate 8, just west of Interstate 15. Enter from the north off of Friars Road.

The media entrance and media will call are at Gate H. The open-air press box can be reached by taking Elevator 4 (elevator closest to the press gate) to stadium level 2A.

GAME PARKING

Parking passes at SDCCU Stadium are limited and will be prioritized similar to the way credentials are issued. Media parking is in the G1 lot and game credentials can be used to access the lot. Visiting media parking should be requested through the opponent's media relations office.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Working media will be provided with pregame notes, a game program, flip card, quarterly, halftime and final statistics, including postgame notes and quotes. An in-house television system provides updates and replays during the game. Video and audio of Rocky Long's postgame news conference will also be available. Postgame notes, quotes and final stats will also be available on GoAztecs.com following the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only accredited photographers on assignment will be issued sideline credentials for Aztec home games — per NCAA guidelines. The NCAA also specifies that photo shooting must take place outside the restraining line that encircles the playing field and outside of the team areas (25-yard line to 25-yard line).

TELEPHONES AND INTERNET

The media relations office will provide four charge-per-call phones in the visiting media's section of the press box for all home games. The phones are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Media requiring special service are urged to order individual phone lines through Gary Brashear at SDCCU Stadium, (619) 281-1500. Those requiring their own phone instruments should make arrangements through their local AT&T representative. Phone lines for originating radio stations, as designated by the opposing athletic department, will be provided through the Mountain West co-op agreement.

Wireless Internet is available, free of charge, in the main area of the press box.

POSTGAME POLICY

The Aztec locker room is closed. Head coach Rocky Long and selected players will be available at a postgame news conference in the interview room located just down the hall from the Aztec locker room. Video and audio from that news conference will be available in the press box. There is no formal postgame format involving the visiting coaches or players.

No postgame interviews will take place on the field without the prior approval of the media relations office.

For postgame purposes, the Aztec and visiting team locker rooms, and the postgame interview room at SDCCU Stadium are located at the B2 level of the facility. That level can be reached via the press elevator and heading left.

Interview Requests

For interviews with a member of the SDSU football staff, including head coach Rocky Long, contact senior associate athletic director for media relations Mike May or assistant athletic director for media relations Jamie McConeghy at (619) 594-5547. For video or phone needs, please contact Mike May.

LONG MEDIA OPPORTUNITIES

All other interviews with Long or any member of the football staff should be arranged through the media relations office.

Media Information

TUESDAY MEDIA LUNCHEONS

This fall, SDSU will once again play host to a Tuesday media luncheon with head coach Rocky Long and requested players. The location will be the second floor of the Fowler Athletics Center.

Lunch is scheduled to begin at noon, with coach Long addressing the media at 12:15 p.m., followed by student-athletes.

Player requests for the press conference should be made by noon on Monday.

The news conference is carried live on the Internet at GoAztecs.com. A transcript of the weekly media luncheon will be posted on GoAztecs.com. Contact the media relations office for additional details.

FOWLER ATHLETICS CENTER

The Fowler Athletics Center is the home of SDSU athletics. The four-story facility is located at 5302 55th Street in San Diego, just west of Viejas Arena and adjacent to the football practice facility and Tony Gwynn Stadium. The football offices are located on the second floor and the media relations office is on third floor in suite 3014. Usually, major news conferences take place in the first-floor auditorium. Most of Long's media gatherings will be on the second floor.

CAMPUS PARKING

Media wishing to attend Aztec workouts during the week will need to obtain a special parking permit from the media relations office, located in suite 3014 of the Fowler Athletics Center. The permit is good for parking in Parking Structure 7, just south of the FAC at the corner of Montezuma Road and 55th Street.

SDSU PRACTICES

San Diego State practices are typically closed. On a weekly basis, certain periods may be open to members of the media who cover San Diego State on a regular basis. Check with the media relations office for details.

Pending schedules, San Diego State players and coaches will be available either Monday or Tuesday.

Weekly Release

The media relations office will once again e-mail its weekly football releases this season. The release will be posted at GoAztecs.com in Adobe Acrobat format. To receive the weekly release via e-mail, please contact Mike May at mmay@sdsu.edu.

CollegePressBox.com

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Mountain West football. Access and download weekly game notes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its 12-member schools throughout the season. The service also has special sections devoted to bowls, awards, national signing day, Login information will be distributed by the conference office to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

What they're saying about CollegePressBox.com ...

"I couldn't think about covering college football without CollegePressBox.com. ... It's at the top of my personal bookmarks on every computer I own." - Tim Griffin, 2010 President, Football Writers Association of America

"A tremendous resource for anyone who covers or works in college football. ... Perfectly organized and updated. There's no need to dig through hundreds of websites. It's one site that covers it all." - Mike Vest, Big Ten Network

"The central point for all media to obtain game-week information for the Rose Bowl Game and the BCS National Championship. This one-stop shop for transcripts, audio and reference materials received nothing but positive comments from national media on the ease of navigation and the advanced services never before provided." - Gina Chappin, Rose Bowl Game

Radio and Television

iHEART MEDIA SAN DIEGO

San Diego State University and FOX Sports College Properties announced a multi-year agreement with iHeartMedia San Diego to broadcast SDSU football and men's basketball games beginning with the 2017 football season.

Select iHeartMedia San Diego radio stations will be the flagship radio outlets for the San Diego State Aztecs' game broadcasts through the FOX Sports College Properties Network. Fans can listen to the game broadcasts locally on 101.5 KGB and XTRA 1360 AM in San Diego, on Fox Sports 1350 in Riverside, and nationwide on iHeartRadio, live streaming radio service.

In addition to the pre-, post- and in-game broadcasts, iHeartMedia San Diego will produce and air a weekly "Coaches Show" with head football coach Rocky Long, and new men's basketball head coach Brian Dutcher. Select SDSU baseball and post-season women's basketball games will be heard on XTRA 1360 AM.

"We are very excited about partnering with iHeart Media San Diego for our radio rights," said SDSU Director of Athletics John David Wicker. "The success of not only our football program, which has won at least 10 games in the last three years and made its eighth straight bowl game appearance last season, our men's basketball program, which has won an unprecedented 11 Mountain West conference championships, but of all of our sports, which have combined to claim 41 team conference titles since the beginning of the 2012-13 season, is something in which the University and the entire San Diego community can take great pride. We look forward to working with iHeart to share the successes of our student-athletes for years to come."

iHeartMedia's Newsradio 600 KOGO, San Diego's News and Information Station, previously held the broadcast rights for SDSU Athletics from 2007 to 2013.

"We are thrilled to welcome back the San Diego State Aztecs to the iHeartMedia family," said Melissa Forrest, President of iHeartMedia's San Diego/Riverside Region. "The partnership is a natural fit, given our past broadcast history with SDSU, our unparalleled reach through our multiple platforms and the widely popular Sky Show association for the past 13 years. We can't wait for the season to start."

Listeners will get their chance to hear the first broadcast of the new season when SDSU opens at home on Saturday, Aug. 31, 2019, which also coincides with the 44th KGB Sky Show, the annual San Diego tradition and "The Biggest Fireworks Show West of the Mississippi."

ESPN / CBS SPORTS NETWORK / MOUNTAIN WEST NETWORK

The Mountain West has exclusive national television rights agreements with CBS Sports Network and ESPN, Inc. CBS Sports Network is the primary rights holder and 2019 will be the network's 14th year broadcasting Mountain West football games.

On March 20, 2013, the Mountain West and ESPN, Inc. announced a long-term agreement, establishing the network as the second national television partner for Conference-controlled 2013 football and men's basketball games.

Between the two networks, at least 40 football games will be televised annually on their various platforms. The CBS Sports Network and ESPN agreements are scheduled to run concurrently through 2019-20.

ABOUT CBS SPORTS NETWORK

CBS Sports Network, the 24-hour home of CBS Sports, televises more than 600 live events and over 3,000 hours of live programming every year. The network telecasts Professional Bull Riding (PBR), live college football, college basketball and more from the Mountain West, American Athletic Conference, Conference USA, Atlantic 10, as well as Army, Navy and the Patriot League.

Throughout the year, the network also telecasts a full slate of original programming and studio coverage, such as NFL Monday QB featuring Trent Green, Rich Gannon and Steve Beuerlein, as well as We Need To Talk, the first-ever all-female sports show.

Additionally, CBSSN has become the extension of CBS Sports, sharing talent and graphics as well as providing support coverage of every major event that CBS produces including Super Bowl LIII, SEC football, NCAA Tournament, The Masters and PGA Championship.

ABOUT ESPN

ESPN, Inc., is the world's leading multinational, multimedia sports entertainment company featuring a portfolio of more than 50 multimedia sports assets. The company is comprised of nine U.S. 24-hour television networks (ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNEWS, ESPNU, ESPN Classic, ESPN Deportes, Longhorn Network, SEC Network, ACC Network) and five HD simulcast services (ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPNEWS and ESPN Deportes). Other businesses include ESPN Regional Television, ESPN International (35 networks, syndication, radio, digital), ESPN Radio (broadcast, satellite, digital, a growing category led by ScoreCenter), ESPN.com (plus a variety of sport-, college-, and market-specific sites), ESPN Enterprises and espnW. Multi-screen offerings include WatchESPN (access to several ESPN networks online and via an app), ESPN3 (live multi-screen network available online, on the go and via Xbox LIVE) and ESPN Mobile (mobile Web, mobile TV and video, apps, alerts and messaging). Based in Bristol, Conn., ESPN is 80 percent owned by ABC, Inc., which is an indirect subsidiary of The Walt Disney Company. The Hearst Corporation holds a 20 percent interest in ESPN.

ABOUT MOUNTAIN WEST NETWORK

The Mountain West Network has been recognized for its technical achievement, having received three consecutive Emmy Awards (2014-16) from the Heartland Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. Since its launch in October of 2012, the MWN has provided fans over 3,200 on-demand videos while also streaming over 6,100 events, including most Conference championships. Over 43 million unique viewers from more than 179 countries have tuned into MWN content since the network's debut in 2012.

The Mountain West Network has extended its reach on social media platforms as well. Through its partnership with Stadium, the Mountain West became the first league to broadcast a football game live on Twitter with the Aug. 30, 2016 contest between Weber State and Utah State. The Conference also became the first to broadcast a live basketball game on Twitter (Alaska-Fairbanks at Boise State on Nov. 6, 2016), as well as the first to have a bowl game streamed live on Twitter and Facebook (NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl between Air Force and South Alabama on Dec. 30, 2016). Since its inception, the MWN has accumulated over 7.5 million views of its on-demand content on Facebook and Twitter alone.

Mountain West Network content is accessible by pointing any internet browser to TheMW.com. In addition, the MWN can be watched from the official athletics website of each MW member institution, and fans can tune in from the league's official mobile application for iOS and Android devices. Visit the App Store or Google Play for details on the free application.

All Mountain West Network programming is also available on Stadium, a 24/7 live and on-demand sports network that delivers world-class content that you can access anytime, anywhere, with no cable subscription required. Campus Insiders, 120 Sports and Sinclair Broadcasting have combined forces to launch Stadium, the industry's only all-platform sports network complete with a live, daily national studio operation, an exclusive and unique collection of professional and collegiate rights, nearly 3,000 live games plus classic games and archives, and much more. For more information, visit WatchStadium.com.

FOX SPORTS COLLEGE PROPERTIES

In 2017, the San Diego State Athletic Department signed a partnership agreement with FOX Sports to exclusively manage its multimedia rights and sponsorship sales. The rights managed by FOX Sports College Properties, a division of FOX-owned Home Team Sports, will include athletics-related radio, corporate hospitality, in-venue signage, social media integration, promotional activities, and intellectual property rights, as well as other mutually agreed upon inventory.

"We at SDSU Athletics are very excited to be associated with the FOX Sports brand and all that comes with partnering with a leader in collegiate athletics," SDSU Director of Athletics John David Wicker said. "San Diego State is a brand that is on the rise nationally and the relationship with FOX Sports is further proof of that. Being able to align our brand with not only FOX Sports, but schools like Auburn, USC, Georgetown and others that are part of the FOX Family, will only enhance San Diego State athletics.

"Partnering with FOX Sports allows SDSU to create synergies with FOX Sports San Diego and the FOX Sports headquarters in Los Angeles that haven't been available to us before. I'm excited by the new opportunities to grow our national brand by leveraging these new assets that FOX will bring to the table."

"San Diego State is a great addition to FOX Sports' elite portfolio of multimedia partnerships," Home Team Sports President Kyle Sherman said. "We look forward to broadening the San Diego State brand and continue its connection with the San Diego community, and acting on the shared vision of what we will build together."

FOX Sports also brings a unique academic component to the partnership through FOX Sports University, which collaborates with students to find solutions to real world marketing and business challenges, giving them valuable experience and a head start when entering the job market.

San Diego State is the latest addition to a select group of universities in FOX Sports' multimedia rights portfolio, including Auburn, Michigan State, Georgetown, USC, Villanova and the BIG EAST Conference.

ABOUT FOX SPORTS COLLEGE PROPERTIES

FOX Sports College Properties, a division of FOX-owned Home Team Sports, is a full-service sales and marketing organization representing some of the biggest brands in college athletics, including Auburn, Georgetown, Michigan State. Southern California, Villanova, and the BIG EAST Conference. The mission of FOX Sports College Properties is to create long-term strategic partnerships through customized, integrated marketing programs that deliver great value while addressing the needs and objectives of the athletic departments and corporate partners. Additionally, FOX Sports College Properties owns and operates the Continental Tire Las Vegas Invitational, where the Aztec men's basketball team will compete in November 2019.

BEATING THE BEST

SEPTEMBER 16, 2017

SDSU 20, #19/19 STANFORD 17

SEPTEMBER 15, 2018

SDSU 28, #23/25 ARIZONA STATE 21

OCTOBER 6, 2018

SDSU 19, #RV/24 BOISE STATE 13

- Since the beginning of the 2015 campaign, San Diego State has won 39 games, tied for the 10th-highest win total during that span.
- San Diego State is 3-1 since 2017 against top 25 opponents (AP or Coaches). The rest of the Group of 5 are a combined 19-112 (.145) over that span.
- SDSU is 4-1 against the Pac-12 since the start of the 2016 season. Included in the four wins are two victories against ranked Pac-12 squads (No. 19/19 Stanford on Sept. 16, 2017 and vs. No. 23/25 Arizona State on Sept 15, 2018).
- Among California's seven FBS schools, San Diego State owns the second-highest winning percentage this decade. The Aztecs' record of 80-39 trails only Stanford and ahead of USC, UCLA, Fresno State, California and San José State.
